

LIQUOR RING GAVE $250,000 IN GIFTS ONE CHRISTMAS

Prosecutor Traces Presents to Police in Philadelphia in 1926 Through Tags and Seals

EVIDENCE GOING TO GRAND JURY

Compliments of Max Boo Boo Hoff and the Boys' Read the Labels on the Packages.

By the Associated Press. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12.—District Attorney Monaghan said today that gifts from Max "Boo Boo" Hoff to members of the police department, valued at thousands of dollars had been traced. Tags and seals are in the prosecutor's possession.

The gifts, the prosecutor said, were in addition to the "salaries" paid police by the bootlegging ring for protection in their liquor running activities. Seals pasted on the wrappings of the gifts, Monaghan said, bore these greetings:

"Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from Boo Boo Hoff and the Boys," and "Compliments of Max Boo Boo Hoff and the Boys."

The District Attorney stated that an investigation by special agents of the United States Treasury had disclosed that "Hoff and the boys" had paid $250,000 for gifts presented to members of the police bureau in 1926.

"These tags," he added, "were sent out to police officials with gifts, delivered to their homes and received by the officials, high and low. By high and low, I mean police of every high rank and the ordinary patrolman."

Some of the prominent persons whose names were found on a long list when the storehouse of Joel D. Kasper, so-called society bootlegger, was raided by prohibition agents, were before the Federal grand jury yesterday to tell what they could of his activities.

The present inquiry into liquor selling grew out of a raid at Kasper's place in July when Federal agents seized what they said was a customers' list of about 1000 names.

Subpenas have been issued for 40 witnesses, including business men, sportsmen, financiers and attorneys.

Government officials, it is said, have assured those subpoenaed they will not be prosecuted in event they had purchased liquor from Kasper, but that if they failed to recognize the powers of the grand jury they might be cited for contempt.

Excavation work was started today for a 12-story office building on Olive street west of Twelfth boulevard that will adjoin and connect architecturally with the Missouri Pacific Building. A permit was issued yesterday by the City Building Department. The building will cost $500,000, according to the permit.

The site fronts 50 feet on Olive street but only 30 on Pine, the necessary width on Pine street being necessary to provide an alley running half the block north to meet an east and west alley. The completed structure will appear to be part of the railroad building. It will be erected by the Home-Kiel Construction Co. for the Home-Kiel Investment Co.

Between the new building and Twelfth boulevard is a site 135 feet long on Olive street and 193 feet on Pine with frontage of 193 feet, the entire block, on Twelfth boulevard. This has been proposed as a possible site for the new Federal building and a bid offering it has been submitted.

RETECTIVE PAYS $3 FINE
Motorist Hasn't Appeared to Answer Traffic Charge. However, City Detective Arthur Wender, who received a summons Tuesday at Twelfth boulevard and Olive street when police were campaigning to enforce the new ordinance against stopping vehicles within designated crosswalks, appeared at the Traffic Violations Bureau today and paid a $3 fine for obstructing a crossing.

GOV. SMITH PERSONALLY RUNS DOWN AND EXPLODES WOMAN'S TALE OF DRINKING

Democratic Presidential Candidate Issues Statement of Proof That Story He Was Drunk at Syracuse Fair Was Groundless.

By the Associated Press. ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 13.—The following statement was issued by Gov. Smith last night:

Nailing a Lie in the Whispering Campaign.
By Alfred E. Smith.
On Sept. 5, 1928, Mr. W. A. Keenan of the firm of Hays & Keenan, income tax specialists at Parkersburg, West Virginia, wrote the following letter to Democratic headquarters at Syracuse, N. Y.:

Gentlemen:
"You are, of course, familiar with the underground 'whispering' campaign which the political enemies of Gov. Smith are waging against him. You possibly noted that Senator Robinson referred to it in his Dallas speech a few days ago. This same speech seems to be in effect in West Virginia. Coming from unknown sources one would be inclined to ignore such tactics, but it has come to my attention in the following manner:

"A lady of this city, formerly a resident of Syracuse, and very prominent socially here, has a letter from Mrs. Florence Sanford, whom she advises is the wife of H. D. Sanford of Syracuse, and who is reported to be prominent there. In this letter, the lady sets out the statement that on the occasion of Gov. Smith's visit to the State fair at Syracuse, he occupied a box next to the one occupied by Mrs. Sanford, and the story is that Gov. Smith was disgustingly intoxicated, so much so that when he attempted to arise to make an address he had to be helped to his feet by two persons, one on each side. The contents of this letter were discussed at a social gathering and impossibility of the truth of such a statement was questioned. I am, therefore, taking the trouble to ask your organization to furnish me a statement from someone, preferably a member of the political party than that of Gov. Smith, to brand this as a political lie of the dirtiest sort. I wish this statement to show to the persons present when this woman made the contents of the letter known, as I am sure they will be glad to believe Gov. Smith will lose many votes he would otherwise receive. Wish to advise that West Virginia is a battle ground this year and every vote helps."

"Thanking you in advance for this information at once, I am very truly yours, (Signed) W. A. KEENAN,
Box 672, Parkersburg, W. Va.
The above letter reached Mr. William H. Kelley, president of the Merchants National Bank of Syracuse, who is Democratic leader of that city, and in the late afternoon of the same day he called me on the telephone and acquainted me with the contents of the letter.

Statement by a Republican.
I suggested that he forward the original to me, keeping a copy in his office, and that he secure the statement from a member of the opposite political party to mine, as suggested by Mr. Keenan in his letter. Accordingly, on Saturday morning I received in the mail the original letter from Mr. Keenan and the following letter from Senator George R. Fearon, chairman of the judiciary committee of the State Senate and a prominent Republican:

Dear Sir:
"I have read the letter which you sent me dated Sept. 5, 1928, and signed by W. A. Keenan of Parkersburg, W. Va., in which he quotes a resident of this city as stating that on the occasion of Gov. Smith's visit to the State fair at Syracuse he was so disgustingly intoxicated while occupying a box in the grand stand that when he attempted to arise to make an address he had to be helped to his feet by two persons, one on each side.

"Politically, I am opposed to Gov. Smith, but I believe in a square deal even for political opponents.

"It so happens I am a member of the advisory board of the State fair and that, together with Henry Morganthau, Jr., was designated by Commissioner Pyke to act as the Governor's escort while he was at the fair. By reason of this assignment I was with the Governor substantially all of the day in question from the time he left the Oriskany Hotel in the morning until he boarded his train for Albany in the late afternoon. I occupied an adjoining box to the Governor while he was viewing the races. He made no speech from the box. He was not intoxicated. He showed no evidence of even having a single drink, nor do I believe that he had.

"The Governor made two addresses, one from the bandstand in the Empire Court about 11:30 in the morning and the other at the dedication of the Agricultural Museum at about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. I was next to him on both occasions and saw him at all times. The statement which Mr. Keenan quotes as to the Governor's condition is so manifestly unfair and untrue that I would not feel that I was acting the part of a man if I did not write you this letter stating the facts as I know them to be with respect to the occasion in question. Very truly yours, (Signed) "GEORGE R. FEARON."

Dental by Mrs. Sanford.
Immediately upon receipt of the above, I telephoned to Mr. Kelley at Syracuse and suggested that he call upon Mrs. Sanford at her residence and ask her if she wrote such a letter to any woman in Parkersburg, W. Va. Mr. Kelley carried out my suggestion and called to see Mrs. Sanford. Following is the report Mr. Kelley makes to me of his conversation with Mrs. Sanford:

"After introducing myself to Mrs. Sanford, I informed her that I had a letter from Parkersburg, W. Va. She in turn, without letting me go farther, said, 'Yes, it is from Mrs. Bauer.' I said, 'No, it is from a Mr. Keenan and the letter came to the Democratic headquarters yesterday and I have forwarded it to the Governor, who in turn has asked me to see you and inquire whether or not you made the statement referred to in the letter to some lady in Parkersburg who says she received a letter containing such a statement from you. Her reply was that she had written Mrs. Bauer, saying that of course she and her family disagreed with the Governor's attitude on the eighteenth amendment and his ability to change prohibition. I said, 'That is not the question; did you or did you not write the article mentioned in this letter?' She in turn said 'I did not; I was not at the fair on Thursday. I did not see Gov. Smith, neither did I write anything of that sort to Mrs. Bauer.' I asked her if she would write a letter to the Governor to that effect which I might send him. She at first said she didn't see why she should, but she would write Mrs. Bauer. I replied that that would not be sufficient, that the Governor was in possession of this letter and if she was not guilty of writing it I felt it was her duty to write the Governor and tell him so. She promised me she would do so and tell him that she neither saw him while at the fair nor was she at the State fair on the day in question, nor did she say the things contained in the letter from Parkersburg, W. Va. I informed her that that sort of propaganda was being used by the party and that we were going to find out the source. She said, 'Yes, I received a letter from Mrs. Bauer in which she told me of a lot of things being said in Parkersburg, W. Va.'"

Original Letter Missing.
Before sending me the above, however, Mr. Kelley called me again on the phone and stated that Mrs. Sanford had positively denied writing any such letter. I forthwith (on Saturday, about noon) called Mr. Keenan on the 'phone at Parkersburg, W. Va., thanked him for his interest in my cause and asked him if he would call upon Mrs. Bauer, the woman who claimed to have received the letter from Mrs. Sanford, and ask her if she would be kind enough to let him see the letter. At 6:00 o'clock on Saturday night I again called him and he informed me that it had been impossible for him to get in touch with Mrs. Bauer but that he would attempt to do so on Sunday morning. Carrying out his promise he saw Mrs. Bauer on Sunday morning and at 12:30 o'clock I received from Mr. Keenan the following telegram:

Governor Alfred E. Smith,
Albany, N. Y., Sept. 9 a. m. 10 43 6154.
Impossible to get Sanford letter. Party here says same is lost or destroyed. Believe she must have given instructions from Syracuse to destroy or not disclose. However, she does not deny statement in letter, but has quit talking.

"W. A. KEENAN."
It will be noted that Mrs. Sanford promised Mr. Kelley that she would write to me and make denial of the letter attributed to her by Mrs. Bauer. Up to 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, September 11th, I received no letter from Mrs. Sanford.

If Mrs. Bauer made the statements attributed to her by Mr. Keenan and Mrs. Sanford made the statements attributed to her by Mr. Kelley, both can not be telling the truth. Which of the two women involved is guilty of the slander I do not know.

TOOMBS TO FIGHT EXTRADITION, ASKS FOR HABEAS WRIT

International Life Head, Wanted Here, Surrenders to Cook County Sheriff in Chicago.

ST. LOUIS DEMAND HONORED BY SMALL

Return of Insurance Man to St. Louis Delayed Until at Least Oct. 8, Date Set for Hearing.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—Roy C. Toombs, president of the wrecked International Life Insurance Co. of St. Louis, surrendered today and immediately opened a court fight which will delay his extradition to St. Louis until at least Oct. 8.

Following his surrender, on four charges of grand larceny and issuance of fake stock certificates growing out of his withdrawal of $2,500,000 assets of the insurance company, for which he has made no accounting, Toombs' attorney, Eugene McGarry, sought a writ of habeas corpus from Judge Dennis J. Normandy in Criminal Court, contending that Toombs could not be removed as long as he was a C-1 inmate in the bankruptcy hearing of Toombs & Daily, his Chicago investment firm.

The writ was issued, returnable forthwith. Toombs' counsel then asked for a continuance and suggested $1000 bail for his client. Edward G. Davidson, former member of the Missouri Legislature, representing the Circuit Attorney of St. Louis, urged $40,000 bail, and the court fixed the return date for the Court at $5000 with an order for hearing on Oct. 8.

Davidson was here yesterday with extradition warrants, but did not serve them, having agreed to the arrangement by which Toombs surrendered.

24 Days Without Action.
It has been 24 days since the extradition warrants were granted by Gov. Small. Toombs had been at liberty during this time, no effort having been made by Circuit Attorney Davidson or St. Louis police officers who accompanied the Circuit Attorney on a recent trip to Chicago to serve the warrants on Toombs.

The officers did inquire about the propriety of arresting Toombs while he was under suspension as a witness in the bankruptcy hearings here against his Chicago brokerage house, and when told by Referee in Bankruptcy Charles not to arrest him, they returned to St. Louis without further question.

An unquestionable authority on Federal law has stated that the Federal officers who accompanied the Circuit Attorney to Chicago to serve the warrants had no legal right to do so, and that the warrants had been served without interference by the Federal court. Police Commissioner Russell of Chicago also has stated his department would have served the warrants had they been given to him, and Deputy Police Commissioner Stege, in charge of the Chicago Detective Bureau, said the St. Louis officers could have legally arrested Toombs at any time.

WOMEN NAMED IN SMITH STATEMENT SAY NOTHING
Both Mrs. Sanford and Mrs. Bauer Decline to Reply to Nomine.

By the Associated Press. SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Harry Skerritt, attorney for Mrs. Florence Sanford, named in Gov. Smith's statement captioned "nailing a lie in the whispering campaign," said last night that Mrs. Sanford "has nothing to say."

Special to the Post-Dispatch. PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Sept. 12.—Mrs. William J. Bauer of Parkersburg, whose name appeared in Gov. Smith's statement "nailing a lie in the whispering campaign," said last night "My husband and myself have absolutely nothing to say in regard to this matter."

Mrs. Bauer added "both my husband and myself have always been Democrats and have always been for Gov. Smith."

Election Commissioner Player announced following a meeting of the Board of Elections today.

The action of the Board of Elections brings the total number of precincts in the city to 663, an increase of 27 over the 636 of the last election.

YOUTHS IN $5500 HOLDUP, SOUGHT BY POSSE, GIVE UP

Three Robbers, Pursued Three Days, Admit Part in Taking Money of Gasconade Merchant.

FORCED BY HUNGER TO LEAVE FOREST

Fourth in Party, Still at Large, Thought to Have Evaded Pursuers—$4000 of Loot Recovered.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. HERMANN, Mo., Sept. 12.—Disheveled after three days of dodging about the woods near Gasconade, seeking to avoid a posse of 400 men, three of the youths who held up John Findlay, Gasconade merchant, last Monday and took from him $5500 in currency, emerged from hiding this afternoon when they approached the farm of Fred Gidlinghagen seeking food. They were captured by Gidlinghagen and three neighbors without resistance and taken to the county jail at Hermann.

These youths confessed and named another youth who had been the fourth member of the party who has evaded capture. Their pockets bulged with bills of small denominations, $4000 of the loot being recovered.

These under arrest said they were Clarence Halmich of St. Louis and Walter Johnson and Carl Dpton, both of Moberly. The oldest is 25 and the youngest 19.

The robbers forced Findlay's automobile off the road Monday as he was returning to Gasconade from Morrison with $5500 drawn from a bank there to be used in cashing pay checks for employees of the Government boardyard. He was slugged and left bound at the side of the road, together with his six-year-old son, who had accompanied him.

A posse including farmers and 250 employees of the boardyard searched the woods near Gasconade for three days, drawing close enough at one time to exchange shots with the fugitives.

As the robbers approached Gidlinghagen's farm, 26 miles south of Hermann, the farmer and his companions, Frank Moore, Henry Niebrugge and Henry Baker, who had been cooking sorghum in the open, seized rifles and leveled them at the youths, who offered no resistance. Their weapons had been discarded during the chase through the woods.

When news of the capture spread the posse gathered at Gidlinghagen's farm and threatened for a time to take the law into their own hands. When the sheriff arrived, however, he was able to take the prisoners safely into Hermann.

The only member of the group now at large is thought to have evaded the posse and made his way to St. Louis.

FIRES TO 'FRIGHTEN' SINGING YOUTHS, ONE FOUND DEAD
By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—Annoyed by the singing of boys below his window last night, Joseph Czahore fired his shotgun "to frighten them," as he told police later.

He was held for the death of Joseph Kisowski, 17 years old, one of the singers, whose body was found in the street in front of Czahore's home.

THREE IN PLANE KILLED WHEN IT STRIKES HOUSE

14-Year-Old Girl, Her Brother and Amateur Flyer Victims of Crash in Oakland, Cal.

By the Associated Press.
OAKLAND, Cal., Sept. 12.—Two men and a girl were killed last night when a private airplane in which they were riding crashed into a house here.

The dead: Jessie Wallace, 14 years old; T. Wallace, 25, her brother; Clyde L. Berry, 20, pilot. Police said Berry, an amateur flyer from Alameda, who has been operating an airplane for about a year, took off from the Oakland airport, evidently to give the girl and her brother, both of Oakland, a pleasure trip.

The cause of the accident was undetermined, but witnesses said the plane suddenly dived and struck the house.

The three victims were taken to an emergency hospital, but were dead on arrival.

ZIEGFELD'S LIQUOR FOUND
Fine for Illegal Importation Paid by Co-Owner of Contraband.

By the Associated Press.
ROUSE POINT, N. Y., Sept. 12.—The ownership of the 148 bottles of liquor and beer found aboard a private car returning from Canada at this border point was divided between Florence Ziegfeld, theatrical producer, and Dr. Jerome Wagner of New York City, customs men said today in explaining the imposition of a $614 penalty for illegal transportation. Deputy Customs Collector Delano said that he understood that through a "gentlemen's agreement" Dr. Wagner paid the fine, but that insofar as the Customs Office was concerned, the contraband came into this country under joint ownership. A rebound train to which was attached the private car, owned by J. Leonard Replig, president of the Replig Steel Co., was stopped here Tuesday night for regular customs inspection. Inspectors boarded the private car and reported to their superior that they had found 166 bottles of champagne, vermouth and whiskey and 42 bottles of beer. The owners, they said, were Ziegfeld and Dr. Wagner.

STUDENT FOUND SLAIN IN AUTO NEAR FULTON, MO.

Body of Curtis Sutermeister of Kansas City Was Lying Over Wheel of Ditched Machine.

VERDICT OF MURDER RETURNED AT INQUEST

Thought to Have Been Killed by Robbers — He Was Son of Former Newspaper Man.

By the Associated Press.
FULTON, Mo., Sept. 12.—A coroner's jury, investigating the death of Curtis Sutermeister, 29 years old, of Kansas City, whose body was found resting against the steering wheel of his automobile near here yesterday, today returned a verdict that the youth had been murdered "at the hands of unknown parties."

Young Sutermeister, son of Paul A. Sutermeister, former telegraph editor of the Kansas City Star, had left his home in Kansas City last Tuesday with the intention of going to Park College, at Parkville, Mo., where he was to have attended school this fall.

The theory of investigators here, and the belief of his father, is that the youth was forced by robbers to drive them toward St. Louis. He had been dead at least 12 hours before the body was found. A bullet hole in his right temple indicated, investigators said, he had been murdered. Young Sutermeister was left handed, it was learned, and it was thought impossible for him to have fired the shot which caused his death.

A blood stained handkerchief and a .22-caliber revolver were found on the floor of the car. Two shots had been fired although only one bullet wound was found on the body.

LIGHT FIRM ASSUMES UPKEEP OF EAST ST. LOUIS WHITE WAY

Downtown Would Be Dark Otherwise, Since Business Men's Group Owes $1500.

To avoid switching off the "white way" electric street lighting system in the business district of East St. Louis, the East St. Louis Light & Power Co. has agreed to defray the cost of maintaining the lights.

When the system was installed six years ago, adjacent property owners were charged for the first cost. The city agreed to pay for the current and the Downtown Business Men's Association to pay for maintenance, including supplies, cleaning and replacements. The association has not kept up its payments and now owes $1500 to the light company, which holds the city contract.

Cost of maintenance, about $1200 annually, will be taken over by the light company until the present contract expires, Jan. 1, 1936.

George P. May, general manager of the company, announced the lights probably would have been turned off if the company had not assumed the maintenance burden.

The company has not given up trying to collect the $1500 from the business men's association.

MOSES SURE OF NEW YORK, BUT NOT OF MASSACHUSETTS

Eastern G. O. P. Leader, Confronting With Hoover, Adds New Jersey Is Looking Better.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—After a conference with Herbert Hoover today, Senator George Moses of New Hampshire, vice chairman of the Eastern Republican campaign committee, expressed confidence that New York State would be in the Republican column in November.

"We are marking time in New York until after the State convention, when the State ticket will be completed," Moses said.

Mr. Machold (newly chosen Republican State chairman) is taking hold and has done a great deal of preliminary work upstate.

"I came down to see Mr. Hoover and Chairman Work and have gone over the entire situation with them. We have all kinds of trouble ahead of us in Massachusetts, more than in New York. New Jersey is looking better."

HALEY MUST FILL 11 VACANCIES HERE

Dry Agent to Replace All but Three of Aids From Men Who Passed Examination.

Prohibition Administrator Haley is awaiting receipt from Washington of a list of men eligible to the 11 prohibition enforcement posts which are open in St. Louis as the result of the failure of 11 of the 14 men of the St. Louis organization to pass the recent Civil Service examinations.

Haley said today he understood the eligible list, with 69 names, was on its way here and that he would be given 30 days to make his selections. He intends to interview each candidate personally and thinks he will have to call for an additional list. He also must select 16 men for prohibition posts elsewhere in Missouri and Arkansas. Of 26 agents in his district only 11 passed the examinations. The ousted men will remain in their positions until their successors are appointed.

The three men of the St. Louis unit who were passing grades—James Dillon, Deputy Administrator in charge of enforcement; Carl Byrd and Paul Gill—will have the task of instructing the recruits who will replace men of from six months to five years' experience.

The ousted men are: Paul Toelle, Tom Harris, Charles Stanley and Joseph Wolf, with five years' experience; Everett Graham, four years; Fred Niebrugge, Tom Kearney and Gust West, two years; Velmer Gamble, a Negro, 18 months, and John Waters and Stephen F. Thomas, six months.

All of the 11 men are considered as experienced and trained agents, while Toelle, Harris and Stanley are regarded particularly as efficient agents. Waters was told that he had passed oral and written examinations but was ineligible because of physical deficiencies.

5-YEAR-OLD GIRL KILLED BY AUTO; DRIVER CLEARED

Florence Haug, 1948 Arsenal St., Run Down When She Starts Across Street to Supper.

A coroner's verdict of accident was returned today, exonerating William Fuchs, 2724 Wyandotte street, driver of an automobile which struck and fatally injured Florence Haug, 5 years old, in front of her home at 1948 Arsenal street, last night.

Pearl Altschuh, 9, 1952A Arsenal street, who had been playing with the younger girl, testified: "We were walking in the yards. Florence's mother called her to supper. I started to take her across the street, but she jerked away and said, 'I can go by myself.' Then she ran across the street and was struck by the auto."

Other witnesses said Fuchs' view of the running girl was obstructed by a truck parked at the curb. Fuchs' speed was estimated at 20 miles an hour.

A neighbor of the Haug family, George Senf, 1946 Arsenal street, father of three children, said he had twice sent written complaints to police about automobiles and motor cycles, including some operated by policemen, speeding on Arsenal street.

Chief of Police Gerk could find no record of the letters which Senf says he sent. However, the chief said he deplored speeding as much as did Senf, and he instructed Capt. Goodin of the traffic squad to investigate the complaints. Referring to Senf's assertion that policemen were among the speeders, Goodin said: "We are not permitted to speed, except in emergencies, and were subject to arrest and punishment the same as anyone else."

Wilbert Miller, 18, 3102 Park avenue, a handy driver, suffered a fractured skull when he alighted from his truck at 2027 Park avenue last night and was struck by an automobile driven by Lloyd Calvin, 2615 Rutger street.

M'KESSON & ROBBINS BUYS 15 WHOLESALE DRUG FIRMS

George R. Merrell of St. Louis Company Refuses to Comment on Reported Sale.

Announcement was made today that McKesson & Robbins, Inc., eastern drug manufacturers, had acquired control of 15 wholesale drug companies in cities throughout the country. An advertisement announcing the merger said that options had been taken on stock of several additional companies and further expansion was contemplated.

George R. Merrell, president of J. S. Merrell Drug Co. of St. Louis, would not comment on reports that the local concern would be included in the merger. He said it was his understanding that about 20 more companies were ultimately to be included. He would not say whether one of the companies to be acquired was in St. Louis and dismissed the report that he was to be an officer of the new company with the comment that he had not been apprised of it.

The Merrell Drug Co. was founded in 1845 by Jacob Merrell and was the first to manufacture drugs west of the Mississippi river.

STREET CAR HOLDING COMPANY PLAN TO BE FOUGHT BY CITY

Munch to Make Oral Argument Tomorrow; Also to Oppose Gas Rate Increase.

City Counselor Munch will go to Jefferson City tomorrow for oral arguments before the Public Service Commission on the proposal of the owners of the St. Louis Public Service Co. to superimpose a holding company on the St. Louis street railways, and on the application of the Laclede Gas Light Co. to increase its rates to residence users of gas.

The City Utilities Co., created to control both the Kansas City and St. Louis railways, is seeking the necessary permission to own more than 10 per cent of the common stock of the St. Louis Public Service Co. In reality it proposes to own nearly 50 per cent of the stock and thus assume control.

Counselor Munch will base his argument upon the legal point that City Utilities Co. is a Delaware corporation and not empowered to do business in Missouri. The city also opposes the application on the ground that the holding company will be a burden, not a boon, to car riders.

In the Laclede Gas Light Co. application, the city contends that the present rates of the gas company are sufficient to yield a fair return upon a reasonable valuation of the company property.

MORE LIBERAL INTERPRETATION OF MEXICAN LAND LAWS

Mexican Firms With Foreign Stockholders May Own Non-Farming Land on Coast.

By the Associated Press.
MEXICO CITY, Sept. 12.—The Mexican Foreign Office has interpreted the land owning clauses of the constitution to mean that Mexican companies, having foreign stockholders, may own non-agricultural land in the forbidden zones along the coasts and borders.

The Mexican Federation of Chambers of Commerce requested the Foreign Office to define the exact meaning of the Constitutional provision which forbids foreign companies or Mexican companies with foreign stockholders to own land within 100 kilometers of the border and 50 kilometers of the coast. Heretofore this provision has been considered to mean all kinds of land. The new decision specifically exempts land used for other than farming purposes.

DIRIGIBLE TOSSED BY STORM

Army's TC-10 Swept Out to Sea and Then Back to Land.

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 12.—Swept five miles to sea and then forced 150 miles inland, the Army dirigible TC-10 arrived at Langley Field from Lakehurst, N. J., just before dusk last night, after seven and a half hours of battling against a storm, Lieut. B. T. Starkey, pilot, said the squalls were the worst he had ever encountered.

The airship ran into the storm soon after leaving Lakehurst and was carried out to sea. With one motor dead and the ground and water obscured from the pilot's view by low-hanging clouds, the ship was headed inland and won 150 miles out of the way in an effort to get out of the worst of the storm.

BEATEN CANDIDATE, 78, TRIES TO HIT LOUISIANA GOVERNOR

Latter, 35, Ducks Punch and Walks Away After Encounter in Shreveport.

By the Associated Press.
SHREVEPORT, La., Sept. 12.—Judge J. E. Reynolds, 78 years old, defeated in his race for the Democratic nomination for the State Supreme Court, sought to take his fists to Gov. Huey Long of Louisiana, 55, yesterday, but the Governor sidestepped. Reynolds' attack was said to have been provoked by the Governor's support of Reynolds' opponent in the Democratic primary.

The two men met on the street, when Gov. Long greeted the Judge with a "good morning." Judge Reynolds started to extend his hand, and then, recognizing the Governor, changed his gesture to a swing with his fist. Long ducked the blow, and stepped back. "The Judge struck at me, and I just walked away," Long said.

KIDNAPED CHILD HELD FOR $50,000 RANSOM

Abductors Threaten to Kill Chicago Boy, 10, Unless Paid by Saturday.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—Frank Rainer, a sewer contractor, notified police last night that his 10-year-old son had been kidnapped and was being held for $50,000 ransom. The kidnappers notified him, he said, that the boy would be killed if the money was not paid by Saturday.

Police were told a week ago that the Rainer boy was missing. Rainer said he had not mentioned the kidnapping then because he feared to do so. What finally prompted him to lay the case before the police, he said, was that he has six other children, for whose safety he fears.

PAIR FOLLOWED FROM MADISON TRACK, 15000 RINGS STOLEN

Owners of Greyhounds Held Up as They Start to Put Auto in Garage.

When Mr. and Mrs. John E. Miles, who own a string of greyhounds at the Madison Kennel Club, drove away from the track after the final race last night, they were followed to their residence a half-mile away by several men in an automobile. As they drove to their garage, two men with revolvers stepped out of the other car and robbed Mrs. Miles of two diamond rings which she valued at $1500. The robbers also took $15 from Mrs. Miles and $14 from her husband.

The robbers, with an accomplice who had remained in their car, drove west. Miles and his wife drove after them to the dog track and notified highway policemen, who sped toward East St. Louis without catching up with the robbers. The police stopped and searched a number of cars on the way.

The scene of the holdup was the home of Edward Kleppisch, Highway Commissioner of Collinsville Township, with whom Mr. and Mrs. Miles are boarding.

SEVERE HURRICANE SWEEPS PORTO RICOStorm Now Heading Toward Haiti — No Details of Damage.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—A severe hurricane struck Porto Rico early today and was expected to reach the island of Haiti before tonight, said cable advices to the French Telegraph Cable Co. offices. All business has been suspended in Porto Rico, the cable manager at San Juan reported. All land wires were down. No reports were received as to loss of life and property damage.

One message from San Juan said an east-northeast wind of 90 miles velocity was blowing, with the barometer at 29.54.

The storm is probably general over most of the West Indies. A special warning was sent out last night by the Weather Bureau to all vessels in those waters and in Cuba. The Government meteorological station told the residents of that island that the disturbance might reach them.

The storm center last night was about 50 miles south of St. Kitt's. It was moving west-northward and was expected to pass south of the Virgin Islands this morning, skim to the southern coasts of Porto Rico and be over the southern coast of Haiti tonight. Winds of hurricane force were accompanying the slow progress of the vortex of the disturbance.

Storm Warning Issued by U. S. Weather Bureau.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The Weather Bureau today issued the following storm warning:

NOBLE APPRECIATES LETTER

PUBLISHED IN POST-DISPATCH

Sends Note to Dr. Pellettieri in Regard to His Defense of Arctic Explorer.

Gen. Umberto Noble, commander of the divide Italia on its disastrous Arctic expedition, has written to Dr. G. M. Pellettieri of 1414 Franklin avenue, thanking him for a letter written by Dr. Pellettieri and published in the Post-Dispatch of Aug. 10. Dr. Pellettieri had sent Gen. Noble a copy of the published letter, which was headed "In Defense of Italy."

In the letter, Dr. Pellettieri called attention to the statement of Lieut. Lundborg, Swedish aviator, that he had definite instructions to rescue Noble before anyone else, and that he carried out these instructions over Noble's protest.

Gen. Noble, in speaking of Lundborg's letter on this subject, says one passage has been omitted in publishing. In that passage, he says, Lundborg wrote, "I have received orders to bring you first because you are to give instructions for search for the others."

This, Gen. Noble writes, shows that, "If I went first, there were strong reasons for doing so."

NEW YORK POLICEMAN SLAIN
BY INTRUDERS IN HOSPITAL

One of Three Strangers Shoots Guard After Asking for Treatment at Psychiatric Institution.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—A patrolman on guard in the prison ward at Fordham Hospital was shot and killed early today by one of three men who made their escape. The men gained entrance to the hospital when one of them displayed a hand painted with iodine and asked for treatment. While an orderly was in search of a nurse they descended to the prison ward, where they shot Patrolman Jeremiah Brosnan with a sawed-off shotgun.

The men escaped in a waiting automobile bearing a New Jersey license. Police are working on the theory that the slayer was a former prisoner seeking revenge. Brosnan had been a member of the police force 24 years. Only one prisoner was in the ward at the time of the shooting and he made no attempt to escape.

POLICE LOOKING FOR DRUGS
FIND $1173 OF RECLUSE

Money in Tobacco Cans Hidden at 24 South Eighth—No Trace of Narcotics.

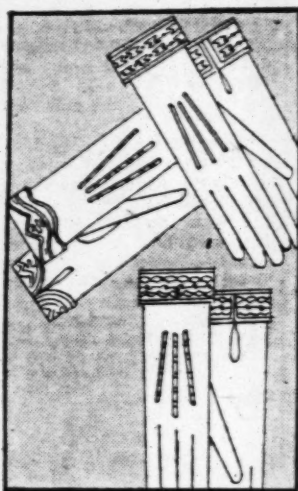

Police and narcotic agents who searched a house at 24 South Eighth street last night, found $1173 in currency stuffed in tobacco cans about the premises. The money belonged to a roomer, Anton Paretti, 32-year-old invalid and recluse. Police took the money to headquarters for safekeeping, out left Paretti in his dingy room.

Mary Becker, proprietor of a restaurant downstairs, was arrested when whisky and wine were found on the premises. The raiders failed to find any narcotics, for which they were looking, at the direction of a Chinese laundyma, who sold them $5 worth of morphine.

9 PERSONS TURN OUT AT CIVIC MEETING

They Discuss Municipal Ownership, Garbage Collection, and Traffic Control.

The St. Louis Business Men's Civic Association, devoted to civic affairs and claiming 400 members, held its first fall meeting last night at Hotel Jefferson. Nine persons responded to the invitation of an eight-page bulletin prepared by Dr.
H. Frank Brown, executive secretary, including two visitors, Mrs.
Brown and a reporter.

Dr. Brown was the principal speaker. He discoursed for an hour and a half on a variety of civic problems ranging from the elusiveness of garbage wagons to municipal ownership of utilities.
He discussed traffic methods in 250 cities traversed in his recent honeymoon and pronounced as good the automatic signal in the public square of Buffalo. It was pointed out that a similar signal exists in Waterloo, Ia.

In the lack of a quorum, Dr.
Brown engineered the passage of a resolution recommending that the association adopt a resolution urging public ownership of utilities and condemning the Union Electric Light and Power Co. for advertising low rates when many municipally owned plants offered lower rates. He released a copy to the press and suggested that the members invoke the suspension rule for absence against some of his fellow officers.

Charles Leonard of St. Louis County made a speech advocating municipal ownership and citing electric rates in many cities. Miss Louise Custer, chairman of the Plaza Committee, reported that she had written to the Washington authorities and to the City Plan Commission urging a Federal Building on the Plaza. They had replied thanking her. "That's the sort of work we want," Dr. Brown declared enthusiastically.

Among the points made by Dr.
Brown were: Garbage wagons are too few and are overloaded so that lids cannot be closed. All vehicles, including street cars, should have clear red "stop" lights on the rear. There should be automatic signals at Goodfellow and Easton and at Hamilton and Easton. Something should be done about the dangerous street depressions left by plumbers. The free bridge should be kept free. The Olive street skip-stop referendum was a farfetched hoax submitted only to the riders who could save time by its continuance. Olive street should be marked with traffic lanes for fast and slow traffic after the Cleveland manner.

CUBA WANTS GREATER RECIPROCITY WITH U. S.

Says New Treaty Is Needed Because of Philippine and Hawaiian Products

HAVANA, Sept. 12.—Dr. Miguel Ancel Campa, Sub-Secretary of State, told the American Chamber of Commerce here yesterday that revisions of the reciprocity treaty with the United States are extremely vital to Cuba's welfare.

He said that negotiations are going on to obtain a better position for Cuban sugar, tobacco and small fruits in American markets in exchange for the advantages on articles not produced in Cuba.
Dr. Campa stated revision is the more necessary since Philippine and Hawaiian products are allowed free entry into the United States.
He voiced a policy of live and let live in international commerce between Cuba and the United States.

Takes Place of One of "Three Flying Musketeers" Killed in Exhibition at Los Angeles Races.

By the Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 12.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh stole some of the interest of the thousands of spectators from the air races yesterday. He volunteered to "do what he could for the meet," and was temporarily assigned to the post left vacant by the death of Lieut. J. J. Williams, leader of the army's "Three Flying Musketeers," stunt flyers. Williams was killed in a crash while stunting with his companions on Monday. With Lindbergh leading the way in an army airplane, the reorganized trio went through intricate maneuvers.

Lindbergh, with the two remaining "Musketeers" flying behind him in V formation, climbed high into the air while below them maneuvered six army bombers from Crissy Field, San Francisco. Zooming dives from the heights, swift turns and sharp banks brought the grandstand crowds to their feet in roaring applause.

Simulating the maneuvers of planes in warfare, Lindbergh's group effected successful attacks from the air upon the squadron of "enemy" bombers, but the new teams of "Musketeers" disappointed the crowds by failing to thrill with any loops or barrel rolls. Lindbergh landed his plane, with his mates following, after about 20 minutes in the air.

Miss Mary Voelker, 59 years old, 3765A Carter avenue, an invalid, was found dead on the floor of her gas-filled kitchen when her sister, Mrs. Rosa Meyers, 2232A Oregon avenue, called for a visit yesterday afternoon. The burners of a gas stove were open.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Frank
P. Walsh, joint chairman under President Wilson of the War Labor announced today at Democratic National headquarters that a movement has been launched to swing to Gov. Smith 5,000,000 Progressive votes cast for the late Senator La Follette four years ago.

He predicted that Gov. Smith would receive 90 per cent of the votes that went to La Follette in 1924. Gov. Smith, he asserted, had enunciated the principles of pro-gressivism "as well as old Bob La Follette could have."

SEARS-ROEBUCK FIRST ST. LOUIS STORE IS OPENED

Retail Establishment at Kingshighway and Easton
Starts Business at 9
A. M.

MAYOR MILLER SENDS WELCOME MESSAGE

Company's Second Unit on Grand Blvd. Near Gravois Av. to Be Ready Thursday Morning.

The Kingshighway store, one of the two retail department stores to be established in St. Louis by Sears, Roebuck & Co., opened its doors at 9 a. m. today. The store is on the east side of Kingshighway just south of Easton avenue.

Several Sears Roebuck officers, including W. H. Alexander, general manager of all retail stores, and Joseph P. Slauf, general retail advertising manager, were in attendance. R. E. Wood, president of the corporation, who was unable to come to St. Louis on account of business, telegraphed from Chicago his congratulations to the manager.

Congratulations were also received from L. J. Rosenwald, vice-president in charge of operations of all Sears Roebuck plants. Mayor Miller sent the following message to the management: "It is a pleasure to welcome to St. Louis a concern such as Sears, Roebuck & Co., with its many affiliations and splendid business reputation. There is plenty of room for additional business concerns like Sears, Roebuck & Co., in St. Louis."

Layout of Building.
The building follows the general plan adopted for the company's stores in other large cities. It is a three-story building with a tower, which houses the ventilating system and a 40,000 gallon water tank which furnishes the store's fire protection. The interior decorations are in ivory white, with walnut wood work, shelves and counters.
Yesterday 500 clerks worked to get the stock in readiness for the opening. Experts conducted training classes for the sales force.
Guides were present today to direct the customers in the various departments.

The arrangement of the departments follows, in a general way, those in stores of this type. The house furnishings and the more bulky merchandise are in the basement and on the second floor.
The first floor is given over to men's and women's furnishings, novelties, children's and infants' wear, soda fountain and other articles usually sold on the main floor of the department stores of the large cities. Piece goods, women's ready-to-wear apparel and kindred lines are on the second floor. The third houses the general offices and the reserve stock.

Foreign Language Service.
According to store officers, special effort was made to organize sales people who speak foreign languages so that foreign-born customers may be waited on by sales persons who speak the customer's native language. This new foreign-language is the result of plans outlined by Mrs. Addie C.
McDonald, in charge of the personnel of all Sears, Roebuck establishments. In forming this new unit the names of employees who speak foreign languages have been compiled.

The management has announced that plans have been made to popularize the store as a neighborhood center. To this end the company has arranged rest rooms, a parking place for baby carriages besides parking space for automobiles, and other conveniences of the kind that are usually part of the equipment of neighborhood centers.

Attendants and trained nurse will be on duty in the rest rooms and a personnel superintendent will look after the welfare of the employees.

Open Till 9 P. M.
The new store will be open until 9 p. m. to offer an opportunity to those unable to visit the store in the daytime, to inspect it after work hours.

The official opening will continue tomorrow and Saturday, with store hours from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.
Beginning Monday the store hours will be the same as the downtown department stores, with the exception that the store will be open Saturdays till 9 p. m.

A. M. Honnet, a former resident of St. Louis, has been appointed manager of the two St. Louis Sears, Roebuck stores. John S. MacTaggart is manager of the Kingshighway store. He has been in department store managerial work for several years in St. Louis and vicinity.

St. Louis retail stores of Sears,

ing is the one at Kingshighway and Easton Avenue which was opened this morning.

ARKANSAS APPORTIONS $3.98
SCHOOL FUNDS PER CHILD
$2,470,500 Is September Allotment
For 620,700 Pupils; $4.11
Each Last Fall.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 13.—
The State apportionment of common school funds as allotted by the State Board of Education today is $3.98 cents for each child of school age, according to an announcement by J. P. Womack, State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

A total of $2,470,541.22 was allotted to a school population of 620,739. Last September the allotment was $4.11 per child.

It is the practice of the Board of Education to make an allotment each September and a supplemental allotment the following March out of cigarette tax and insurance tax collected after the September allotment was made. The March apportionment amounts to approximately half that for September.
The amount of common school funds on hand at the close of business Sept. 10 as certified by Auditor of State J. Carroll Cone to the Board of Education was $2,472,- 881.51, leaving a balance of $2340.29 unapportioned after today's board meeting. That amount will be added to the fund to be apportioned next March.

FREED ON CHARGE OF ASSAULT
Negro Arrested After Scuffle With Officer Discharged in Court.

A charge of assault to kill against Robert Wilks, Negro, of 1720 North Eleventh street, was dismissed yesterday after a preliminary hearing before Judge Gayer in Court of Criminal Correction.
Wilks was arrested June 6 at his home after a scuffle which ensued when Patrolman Edward Leonard demanded to know why Wilks did not have a State license on his automobile, parked at the curb.

Leonard testified Wilks snatched the policeman's revolver and fired it into the air.

"Well, you had no right to question him, anyhow," the Court said.
"He was not operating the automobile without a license. Too many policemen expect Negroes to kow-tow to them. That is not a proper attitude."

UPSHAW DEFEATED SECOND TIME BY SMITH FOLLOWER

Ex-Congressman Beaten Decisively by Successor in Georgia Primary, Losing Even Home Town.

By the Associated Press.
ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 12.—The verdict of Georgia Democrats was for Gov. Smith in the only major race of the State party primary yesterday in which the candidacy of the New York Governor was an outstanding issue.

Congressman Leslie J. Steele, a staunch supporter of Smith, gained a decisive victory over W. L. Upshaw for the congressional nomination from the Fifth District, including Atlanta. Upshaw is against Smith.

Gov. L. G. Hardman apparently was renominated over the youthful State Senator, E. D. Rivers.
Steele, who wrested the seat in the house from Upshaw two years ago, carried four of the five counties in the district and apparently had carried Atlanta. Upshaw's home. Steele is a resident of Decatur.

Issuing a statement expressing satisfaction over the result, Steele said the result in the district indicated that Democrats there were true to their party.

Seventy-six precincts out of 90 gave Steele 9554, against 7110 for Upshaw. This meant Steele had 16 county unit votes, the actual basis of nomination, to two for Upshaw.
If a candidate has a majority of the popular vote in a county, the complete unit vote for that county goes to him. The unit vote is twice the number of State legislators from that county.

On the basis of incomplete returns, Hardman had a unit vote of 288 to 112 for his opponent.

Johnson Takes Lead in Washington Congressional Race.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Albert
Johnson stepped out ahead yesterday in his race for Congress from the third Washington district as returns from yesterday's primary trickled in.

Johnson, who has been in Congress since 1912 and is chairman of the House Immigration Committee, gradually moved up on Homer T. Bone, Tacoma lawyer, during the day, overcoming Bone's majority of 9000 yesterday, with 538 of the 627 precincts reported. Johnson had a lead of 1538 votes.

Gov. Roland H. Breyer continued to pile up a big lead in his fight for renomination on the Republican ticket. His nearest opponent was F. L. French.

A. Scott Bullitt, Seattle lawyer, was well in the lead for the Democratic nomination for Governor.
Kenneth Macintosh had a good lead over Miles C. Poindexter, or United States Senator in the Republican race for the Senate.

Senator Cutting Nominated in New Mexico.

By the Associated Press.
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept.
12.—Senator Bronson M. Cutting won the long-term nomination for the United States Senate by acclamation at the Republican State convention here yesterday.

Cutting was appointed by Gov.
Dillon six months ago to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Jones. His nomination was for the regular six-year term.
Former Gov. O. A. Larrazolo was nominated by acclamation for the short term in the Senate to fill Jones' unexpired term.

RETAIL COAL PRICE 75 CENTS TO $1.75 BELOW LAST YEAR'S

Scale for Home Use Ranges from $4.75 to $6.50 a Ton, Delivered.

Retail coal prices here are from 75 cents to $1.75 a ton less than at this time last year, when most of the Illinois mines were idle after the expiration of the Jacksonville wage agreement.

Ordinary coal now can be bought at $4.75 a ton, as against $6.50 a ton last year. Medium grade coal is now $5.50 a ton, compared with $6.25 a ton at this time last year;
and high grade coal is available at $6.50 a ton, the same coal bringing $8.25 last September. Steam coal is now offered at $2.90 a ton delivered. Last year at this time steam coal cost from $5 to $8 a ton delivered. Despite lower prices, buying for home use has been slight, dealers report.

The result of a vote by 90,000
Illinois miners on a proposed wage reduction will be announced at Springfield Sunday or Monday.
Under the agreement miners would be paid 91 cents a ton, instead of $1.08, on a tonnage basis, and $6.10 a day instead of $7.50. Reports on the bargaining of 6000 miners in the Belleville subdistrict today were that the miners are four to one against a reduction in wages. Miners in other parts of Southern Illinois are reported to be voting for the reduction and it is expected the reduced scale will be adopted.

To Guide Drivers in Belleville.
Reflecting signs are to be used in guiding out-of-town motorists in Belleville. The signs are to be erected by the St. Clair Automobile Club. The first sign was placed at Main street and Mascoutah avenue to mark Route No. 15.
Rogers Hyde, vice president of the club, is arranging to place similar signs within the next week or 10 days.

gree murder and was sentenced to

Jones, Perkins, Finlay And Voigt Go Into U. S. Golf Semifinals

By the Associated Press. BRAE BURN COUNTRY CLUB, Newton, Mass., Sept. 13.—The semifinals of the National Amateur Golf championship will be played tomorrow with Bobby Jones, the defending champion, opposing Phillips Finlay, Harvard sophomore star, while T. P. (Phil) Perkins, the champion of Great Britain, meets the sensational New Yorker, George Voigt. This was decided today by four sensational third round matches.

Jones led the way by crushing the British player, John Beck of London, by 14 up and 13 to play a margin that equaled the tournament record for decisive defeat. The defending champion, with a 70 for the morning round that was the best score of the tourney so far, thus put himself in the same bracket with Finlay, who wound up the day with a spectacular uphill victory over Harrison R. (Jimmy) Johnston of St. Paul 2 and 1.

Perkins, the first Briton to get as far as the semifinals in the American championship in many years, beat off John Dawson of Chicago, 3 and 1, in another exciting match. The invader's next opponent, George Voigt, the medalist, continued his brilliant march by overcoming the burly Portland (Ore.) dentist, Dr. Oscar F. Willing, 4 and 3, in the fourth 36-hole encounter.

With the exception of the Johnston-Finlay match, the leaders at the end of this morning's first 18 holes were returned the victors and by increased margins.

Johnston was one up at the end of the morning round, but he and Finlay never were more than that far apart as they staged a terrific battle in the afternoon. Finlay squared the match three times and Johnston twice in this dingy struggle. After knotting the count in the thirty-second, however, Finlay went ahead on the thirty-third and clinched the match on the next to last hole.

The semifinals also at 36 holes, will start tomorrow at 10 a. m.

Mellillo sent a sacrifice fly to Mostil. McGowan going to third. Manion popped to Shires.

FIFTH—WHITE SOX—Berg walked. Adkins popped to Mellillo. Mostil walked. Shires singled past Kress. Berg scoring and Mostil reaching third. Reynolds sent a sacrifice fly to Schulte. Mostil scoring. Blackberry flied to McGowan.

SIXTH—WHITE SOX—Kamm popped to Mellillo. Redfern struck out. Kress threw out Cissell.

BROWNS—Manush beat out a roller to Kamm. Schulte singled to left, Manush advancing to third. Kress was safe on Cissell's error. Manush scoring and Schulte stopping at second. McGowan forced Schulte. SHIELDS BEATS BRUGNON; LOTT DEFEATS DOEG IN TITLE PLAY

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 13.—Frank Shields, 18-year-old New Yorker, blasted another of the invading Frenchmen out of the national tennis championship today. The junior champion crushed Jacques Brugnon by scores of 7-5, 6-1, 6-0, leaving Henri Cochet as the lone surviving Frenchman.

George Lott of Chicago defeated John Doeg of Santa Monica, Cal., in straight sets, 6-2, 6-2, 7-5.

Rain topped the other two matches scheduled after they had got well under way. Francis T. Hunter was leading Jack Crawford of Australia, 7-5, 5-6, 6-3, when rain fell during their intermission. The youthful American, Gregory Mangin of Newark, had just taken the first set at 6-4 from Henry Cochet, only surviving Frenchman, and had lost the first game of the second set when the interruption came.

Shields' aggressive, forcing game played havoc with the veteran, Brugnon, who is known as one of the greatest shot-makers in Europe. Brugnon found himself driven into disastrous errors under the American's steady assault from baseline and, on occasion, the net.

Shields' wound up in decisive fashion, sweeping the final game at love on his service. He has yet to lose a set in this tournament and is expected to be the semi-final opponent of Cochet.

By his victory, Shields was the first man to win a bracket in the semi-finals.

In the second quarter final battle, an all-American affair, George Lott of Chicago won from Johnny Doeg of Santa Monica, Cal., 6-2, 6-2, 7-5. Doeg's usually great service was not up to par and when he tried to attack from the net Lott passed him with a drive, or occasionally lobbed gently over his head by way of variation, in the first set.

Lott passes Doeg at Net.

Continuing the same tactics, Lott rushed through the second set. Doeg's service was his only telling asset in this set, pulling out the two games he was successful in winning. Lott came from behind to take the third set and the match. Doeg looked like a certain winner of this set but cracked after he had led at 5-3 in games. Lott running out the last four games for the set, two of them at love, despite Doeg's staunch resistance on his service in the final game.

The match lasted but 50 minutes. It was the first time this year that the rival young stars had met in tournament play and the result of the match reassured Lott's right to his present national ranking ahead of the Californian. The victory carried Lott into the semifinals.

Long Shot Makes a Bid.

Genghis Khan, ridden by E. Shropshire, had all he could do to beat the long shot, Son, in the third race.

Son was dangerous in the last 70 yards, chiefly because Earl Pool gave him very valuable assistance in the way of a good ride. Son was insubordinate at the start but Pool straightened him out and then held him close to the rail. At the stretch turn Dorothy E. and The Show Off blocked Son's path on the inside and Pool altered his course, shot his mount to the outside and came with a great rush which gained second place. Ellen Adair was third.

The winner paid $4.94 for $2.

Jane Brooker Wins at $23.68.

Jane Brooker turned the big surprise of the day in beating a very excellent field of distance horses in the fourth race. FAIRMOUNT RACE TRACK, Sept. 13.—Joe Engel, the gelding which won for Cal Milam at the stretch turn Shropshire made his bid with Jane Brooker and she came on with real courage to outrun four rivals who were running on even terms at the eighth pole. Stuart's Draft was second, a length and a half behind the winner and a short nose ahead of Dante which had only a neck advantage over War Grail. The winner paid $23.68 for $2.

The winner was ridden by Lou Morris and paid $10.70 for $2.

A crowd of about 8000 attended today's racing.

The track was fast and the weather hot.

Polante scored his second successive victory in winning the second race in one of the most thrilling finishes of the meeting.

Over almost every inch of the journey from the six-furlong chute to the judges' stand, Clutter, Polante and Maximus fought for supremacy. At the stretch turn, four horses drew almost abreast. Polante, coming up on the outside of Clutter, was caught in between two rivals when Maximus and Golden Tinted moved forward. Then the three matched strides for more than a furlong and finally Jockey D. Smith forced Polante to the front. At the very finish he was all but caught by Maximus. Golden Tinted was third.

The winner paid $16.38 for $2.

OF THE POST-DISPATCH SPORT STAFF.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Joe McCarthy's challenging Cubs, closing their season at home before a crowd of 40,000 persons, slashed a full game off the Cardinals' first place lead this afternoon, pounding Clarence Mitchell and Sylvester Johnson from the hill while Sheriff Fred Blake was baffling the Red Birds, holding them to four hits. The score was 6 to 1.

This defeat, with New York winning another double-header from Boston, reduced the Cards' hold on first place to one and one-half games over the Giants. The Cubs are two full contests in back of the leaders.

Blake Starts the Trouble.

Mitchell turned back the Cubs for two innings, though, Maguire singled in the first with one out and Hack Wilson led off in the second with a one-larger, but in the third the Bruins pushed a run over the plate.

Blake started the attack with a single to right and English sacrificed the pitcher to second. Blake moved to third while Maranville was throwing out Maguire and Cuyler then singled to right, sending the Sheriff over the plate.

A pass and two scratch singles enabled the Cards to tie the score in the fourth. Frish led off with a walk and Bottomley was credited with a single when Hack Wilson dropped his short fly after a hard run. Frish stopping at second. Hafey's sacrifice fly sent Frish to third and Frankie scored when Harper caromed a single off Blake's shin.

The score did not remain tied long. With one out in the fourth, Grimm singled over second and Gabby Hartnett lined a triple to the distant center field corner of the park, scoring Grimm.

Mitchell Knocked Out.

Then in the fifth the Cubs added two to their total and knocked Mitchell out of the picture. English started the attack with a double to left and after Maguire had sacrificed, Cuyler doubled to right, scoring English. Sylvester Johnson replaced Mitchell and Jimmy Wilson's fine throw to High had Cuyler stealing third, but Andy dropped the ball and Hack Wilson's long sacrifice fly to Douthitt produced the Cubs' second run of the inning.

In the eighth the Cubs knocked Johnson out of the box and added two more to their total. With two gone, Beck and Blake singled and English tripled to left center, driving them over the plate. Frankhouse relieved Johnson and struck out Maguire to end the inning.

All Cubs But One Hit Safely.

English and Cuyler led the Chicago attack, the shortstop getting a single, double and triple and the former Pirate contributing two singles and a double. There were 14 Chicago hits and Stephenson was the only Cub to go without a safety.

High's single to right center in the fifth was the only clean hit of the four off Blake. Hack Wilson handled Bottomley's safety. Harper's hit bounced off Blake's leg and Frish got a safety because English couldn't keep quite high enough to hold Frankie's line, though he stopped it.

Blake improved as the game progressed and Hafey, who walked to start the sixth, was the last Cardinal to see first base. Hafey died stealing and Blake then retired 11 Cardinals in succession to end the contest.

Red Bird Notes.

Bill Sherdel probably will pitch against the Phillies tomorrow in the first game of the series, though Fred Frankhouse will be considered.

Sherdel may get the preference so he will be ready for the important series with the Giants, though Fred Frankhouse will be considered.

About 40,000 persons attended the game, the Cubs' final contest of the league season.

There were few unoccupied seats and many fans stood in the aisles.

Maguire singled to right with one gone in the first, but went to sleep and was picked off first by Mitchell's leisurely throw to Bottomley.

Hack Wilson opened the second with a single to center but he was forced by Stephenson and after Grimm had flied out, Hartnett walked, but Beck fouled to Harper.

Blake held the Cards hitless for three innings. Frish walked in the first but two were out and Bottomley forced Frank to second.

Douthitt drew a pass after two were out in the third, but High grounded to Maguire.

The Cards nicked Blake for two singles in the fifth, after two were down. Cuyler's fast fielding held High's hit to a single and Andy stopped at second on Frish's single, a fine drive which English reached but failed to hold. Bottomley lined to 1 to 1.

Hafey drew a pass to open

SUN EDWIN, M'ATEE UP, TAKES JEROME HANDICAP AT BELMONT PARK FOUR

WINNER RUNS MILE IN FAST TIME TO BEAT ROYAL STRANGER

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Sun Edwin, win, played and ridden by Pony Mcatee, was an easy winner of the Jerome Handicap, a one-mile, here today. It was Mcatee's first winning mount since his accident at Saratoga last month. Sammy Smith's Royal Stranger, favorite, was second, and K. E. Hitts Subvado third.

Sun Edwin in winning ran the eight furlongs in the fast time of 1:24.4. Sun Edwin jumped away to a fast lead and Mcatee let him rate along about a length in front. Around the wide turn Royal Stranger began to move up and there was general rejoicing among the backers of the favorite. However, Sun Edwin was so much the best that he drew away to win by five lengths. Royal Stranger took the place by a length. The race was worth $2400.

Large Field in Opener.

Twenty-one 2-year-olds ran in the first race, and it was won by Clarence Buxton's Sea Bright. He won by half a length over Copper, with Rose Omar third. The five and one-half furlong race was run in 1:08.3.5.

H. T. Archibald's Mantorian scored his second victory of the meeting when he won the steeplechase. He was 5 to 1. Byron, another long shot, was second, and the favorite, Light House, third. Light House was much the best, but was badly interfered with just when he was making his move to take the lead at the stretch turn, the ground gave under him and he stumbled and almost fell. Byers, who had the mount, got him back on his feet, and Light House closed gamely.

Wins for Whitney.

H. P. Whitney added another purse to his string when Sky Light, 7 to 1, won the drive from H. Johnson's Brown Wisdom, with H. T. Archibald's Fleetwing third. It was a three-horse race from the start, between Sky Light, Brown Wisdom and Fleetwing. In the final furlongs Sky Light drew away to win by three-quarters of a length. Brown Wisdom landed the place by a length and a half over Fleetwing.

G. M. Sidenberg's Calwick sprung a surprise.

when he led home a good field in the drive from H. Johnson's Brown Wisdom, with H. T. Archibald's Fleetwing third. It was a three-horse race from the start, between Sky Light, Brown Wisdom and Fleetwing. In the final furlongs Sky Light drew away to win by three-quarters of a length. FOUR RULED OFF TURF FOR LIFE, IN SPONGE CASE

By the Associated Press.

BELMONT PARK, N. Y., Sept. 13.—At a meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club, Daniel Cochran, Jake Bersilly, William Parsons and Sargent McKee were ruled off the turf for life, for their connection with the "sponging" of Alta Allen at Empire City. The trainer's license of Fred Hood was denied.

Several months ago Alta Allen was made a strong favorite to win a race at Belmont Park. Just before time an inspection was made of the horse and it was found that sponges had been stuffed in the horse's nostrils to impede its breathing and cause it to lose the race.

The sponges were removed and Alta Allen won the race in a romp. Investigation followed, with the sponges found in the nostrils.

WRAY'S COLUMN

A Break for McGraw.
When John McGraw's third successive doubleheader with the Braves was rained out, it came to a big relief to an overworked staff. But the rest is only temporary. The deluge is about to begin, for McGraw.

First, come more double-headers with Boston to further wear out the Giants' weary staff. Then in turn comes a parade of the strongest teams in the league starting with Brooklyn and including series with the Cubs, Reds, Pirates and Cardinals.

Try that on your tired hurling corps.

While the Giants are trying to hold back this tide, the Cardinals have only five games with formidable foes.

The invasion of the East should see the Cardinals going strongly against teams they already have trimmed for more than .667 percentage of victories, on the enemy's home ground.

If there is anything in a favorable schedule, the Cardinals should easily take care of the Giants in the final drive; and as for the Cubs, that notorious weak team will be on a severe handicap. It will have to do, on its last trip of the year, what it did not do in two campaigns—show championship form away from home.

Ebbets Was Right.
IT HAS only been a few years since the late Charles Ebbets told fellow baseball mag- nates that the game of taking care of cash baseball customers was in its infancy.

Sunday's game at Yankee field, with more than $5,000 persons looking on, proved Ebbets a real clairvoyant. And more is to come.

That capacity crowd conveyed to Owner Jake Ruppert the need of still more seats. Ten thousand more will be squeezed into Yankee Field and a 100,000 capacity attendance sought and attained will be possible.

On momentous occasions 150,000 persons would attend baseball games, if they thought they could do so in comfort.

The day of such immense stadium is at hand. They would be in existence today, except for the problem of making them pay their overhead during the long idle periods.

The answer, of course lies in the use of the premises for fights, athletics, soccer and other sports. The development of these secondary pastimes, under baseball patronage, is a foregone conclusion, and within a short time.

ILLINOI GRID PRACTICE TO START SATURDAY

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Sept. 13.—Candidates for the University of Illinois football team are arriving daily and when the initial workout of the fall is held Saturday more than 60 aspirants for positions will be on hand.

These veteran lettermen are Captain Nowack, Burdick and Gordon, tackles; Richmond, center; Crane, McClure and Wietz, guards; Delming, Wolgast and Jolley, ends; Stuessy, quarterback; Mills, Timm and Walker, halves and Humbert, fullback. Frosty Peters, a letterman of two years ago who did not play a year ago on account of an injury early in the practice season is also expected to return and his toe may prove a valuable asset to the Illini.

Other members of the squad who did not receive letters last season who will also aspire to receive the call for the regular squad include Baer and Sherman, guards; Hickman and Winsper, backs; Economos, Wagner and Johnson, guards; Ringquist, center; Edelman, tackle and Fields, quarterback. Nickel, a 1926 letterman, a backfield player, will also be out.

LOCAL TEAM IS SOUGHT FOR PRO BASKET CIRCUIT

By Gerald Holland.
Professional basketball is very likely to be introduced in St. Louis this winter, according to information obtained by the Post-Dispatch today. If present plans materialize, the city will be represented in a new western circuit to include six new teams and two present members of the American League, now in its fourth season in the East.

Earl Moss, vice president of the American League, and Commissioner of the proposed new circuit has sounded local sentiment during the week and departed today for Kansas City, confident that backing will be obtained.

Present plans, according to Moss, provide for the placing of teams in St. Paul, Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Chicago, Kansas City, and St. Louis. To this group, the present teams in Baltimore and Fort Wayne, Ind., now members of the American League, would be added.

It is the intention of officials to place one or two of the Eastern professionals in each of the new cities, completing the squad with local talent. At the start of the season, a Western tour of New York Celtics, Eastern champions to stimulate interest.

Great interest in Team.

It is understood that a group of local backers have agreed to accept a franchise in the league if support in one or two doubtful cities is obtained.

According to Moss, professional basketball has enjoyed exceptional financial success in the East. In Fort Wayne, the smallest city on the circuit, the venture cleared $17,000 last year. Moss believes, that the St. Louis offers a fine field and the Midwestern territory even better prospects than the East because of the popularity of the amateur game here. The professional style of play, being much faster, will attract even greater interest, the promoters believe.

If arrangements are completed in other cities, the league season will open late in November and continue until next March. The local team will play two nights each week, according to present plans.

Bowling League Opens.
The Schaefer Delmar Scratch eight-team league is scheduled to open tonight on the Delmar alleys. The league will bowl every Thursday at 9 o'clock.

HAGENLACHER TO OPPOSE HALL IN 3-CUSHION TILT

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—A billiard match that may settle the question of whether leading billiard line players can defeat or hold their own with the acknowledged kings of the three-cushion game will be played here next week.

Eric Hagenlacher, former 18.2 champion, who says he occasionally plays three-cushion, has agreed to meet Allen Hall of St. Louis, the sensational young angle expert, in a series of 12 matches of 50 points each.

Willie Hoppe, the old master of billiard, demonstrated he was able to hold his own in the three-cushion game when he defeated the 18.2 ranks last winter and won the American three-cushion league title and then placed second to Johnny Layton in the national tournament.

Layton and Hoppe Tour.
CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Johnny Layton, three-cushion billiard champion, and Willie Hoppe, who deserted the billiard ranks for the angle game a year ago, departed yesterday on a three-months' exhibition tour of the Northwest and Pacific Coast states. The two players will complete their tour about Dec. 1 in time to start practice for the world's three-cushion tournament, which will be held late in December or early in January.

Corbett Meets Baker, Tonight

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Another young Longhvinar comes out of the West tonight with a crushing left hand as his calling card in New York's fist fight. Young Corbett, the third, of Fresno, Cal., slugging southpaw welterweight, meets that hard punching soldier, Sammy Baker, in a 12-round encounter at Madison Square Garden.

Baker, acknowledged to be one of the three leading challengers for Joe Dundee's 147-pound title, can punch and has unquestioned courage. He is a prime favorite among New York fans because he never flinches when he is beaten.

But the former Mitchell Field soldier will need all his courage and punching power when he climbs into the ring with Corbett if the Westerner lives up to his advance notices and his reputation. His last state was against Nick Testa of Troy, N. Y., one of the leading welterweights in the East, and Nick was knocked out. The Fresno southpaw also holds a decision over Young Jack Thompson, Negro star who knocked out Dundee in a non-title match at Chicago recently.

The 12-round semifinal will bring together two leading contenders for the vacant bantamweight throne—Kid Francis of Italy, and Al Brown, the longest 115-pounder in the business. Originally the winner was to meet Bushy Graham of Utica, N. Y., for the title so far as the New York State Athletic Commission and the National Boxing Association were concerned. This arrangement may have been altered in view of Graham's defeat at the hands of Fidel Labarba, former flyweight king, in a bout at Los Angeles Tuesday night.

HELEN PAYSON MEETS MRS. MIDA TODAY IN CANADIAN GOLF

By the Associated Press.
MONTREAL, Que., Sept. 13.—Weather permitting, the field of 16 still in the running for the Canadian Women's Open Golf championship will have been reduced to four by tonight's play.

Forced to postpone yesterday's second round match play competition because of a heavy downpour of rain had flooded the course of the Beaconsfield Country Club, officials of the tournament announced that two rounds would be run off today if weather conditions are propitious. The second round matches will be run off in the morning and the third round in the afternoon. Competition in both rounds is at 15 holes.

The feature second round match brings together the defending champion, Helen Payson of Portland, Me., and Mrs. Lee Mida of Chicago.

DECATUR WINS FROM TERRE HAUTE IN FIRST PLAY-OFF FOR TITLE

By the Associated Press.
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 13.—The bat and right arm of the veteran Jack Tesar have given the Decatur Combies a one-game edge in their post-season series with Terre Haute for the Three-I League championship.

Tesar relieved Howard, Decatur mound ace, in the eighth inning of the opening contest at Decatur yesterday after the tots had driven in two runs to tie the score at three- all. He held them safe and then scored the winning run in the tenth inning by his double and two successive bunts, the game ending 4-3.

The Hoffmeisters will meet the Stuart team in the three-game series for the championship of the Municipal Baseball Association, starting Sunday afternoon, as a result of their victory over the Stuart team in a one-sided game at Fairground Park yesterday afternoon, 21 to 10.

The contest decided a tie game of last Sunday afternoon in the seventh round, when play was called in the last of the eighth on account of darkness with the score reverting to the end of the seventh, 6-6.

Hard hitting, coupled with a faulty defense of their opponents, was responsible for the top-heavy score registered by the Hoffmeisters in the play-off. The victors scored in every inning except the seventh and ninth and made 27 hits. Included in this number were two home runs, three triples and three doubles.

While the Hoffmeisters were putting on their strong offensive drive in the early innings, the Stuart team were finding the offerings of Walter Meine too difficult to solve. He did not allow a run for the first five innings. In the sixth, he was touched for three hits, which, with a base on balls and two errors, was responsible for five runs for the Stuart.

Lineman pitched the final three innings and gave six hits and five runs.

The Hoffmeisters represented the South Side League and the Stuart team carried the colors of the Independent League.

Benson, Bears' End Coach, Here To Open Season

C. O. Benson, former Illinois football star, arrived yesterday prepared to take up his duties as coach of the Washington University Bears' wing players. Benson is the first of the big coaching staff to put in appearance and Dr. Al Sharpe and Coach Davis will arrive tomorrow. First practice will take place Saturday morning at 10 a. m. at Francis Field.

The high hopes entertained for this year's Washington football team were voiced yesterday by Freshman Director of Athletics Mike Walker, in an address to the Athletic Association, an alumni organization.

Walker declared his firm belief that Dr. Sharpe would turn out a winning team, but added that the support of the institution's friends and alumni was needed.

"I believe that Washington has a great future before it. It is the school's period of athletic renaissance and I differ from the widely voiced view that a great football team cannot be developed in a great city," Walker said.

"My own problem primarily is to get all freshmen interested in some form of athletic activity," Walker expressed disapproval of allowing the freshmen to be idle, and I differ from the widely voiced view that a great football team cannot be developed in a great city," Walker said.

McCoy Will Oppose Indianapolis Boxer

Al McCoy of St. Louis and Battling Ed Baumgartner of Indianapolis have been matched for a welterweight bout of six rounds on the New Coliseum boxing program for Sept. 25, according to an announcement from Matchmaker Jack Tippet of the Fred W. Stockham American Legion Post.

McCoy's recent knockout victory over Eddie Goldberger earned him the match, according to Tippet, who stated that he booked Baumgartner for a local tryout on the strength of that fighter's 10-round victory over Rex Ripple at Harrisburg, Ill., several weeks ago. Baumgartner also holds decisions over Jack Hutchins and Johnny Boyle of Chicago, and Ray Hahn of Indianapolis.

The welterweight event is the second Tippet has scheduled. Yesterday he announced a flyweight bout of six rounds between Jimmy Sayers of Indiana and Mike Sansone of this city.

METHODISTS URGED TO VOTE AGAINST SMITH

E. Deets Pickett, Member of Church Board, Assails Governor as "Friend of Saloon" Interests.

SPEAKS IN ERIE, PA., AT CONFERENCE

Advises Democrats Among Churchmen to Bolt and Give Their Support to Herbert Hoover.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
ERIE, Pa., Sept. 13.—A speech opposing the presidential candidacy of Gov. Smith was delivered before the Erie conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church last night by E. Deets Pickett, research secretary of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Moral Reform of the church and for years active as a temperance worker.

"If the Democratic nominee has a right to bolt the platform," said he, "urging the churchmen to support Hoover and defeat Smith, you have a right to bolt the nominee. If Herbert Hoover was good enough to be good enough for any other Democrat."

"It is demanded that you violate your conscience, that you repudiate your convictions, that you pass under the yoke of Tammany, never again to resist freedom, so that your children, if they be Democrats, shall hereafter be only hewers of wood and drawers of water for such men as O'Leary, Brennan, Proskauer. A fight is to be made, it seems, upon Republican corruption. It has been known, but that fight is to be led by the Saints of Tammany. The father of all evil must be convulsed with laughter at the suggestion."

Warns Pacifists to Leave

Having denounced Gov. Smith as a friend of the liquor interests and retort, Pickett urged the members of the Erie conference:

"Forget whether you are Democrats or Republicans and 'not be fooled.'"

"Let us spurn the threats and abuse which have been leveled against us and place in the White House that modest Quaker gentleman, whom no one yet has had the effrontery to accuse of religious intolerance, for whom children in a score of lands thank God before they lie down at night—Herbert Hoover."

Pickett disclaimed any disposition to assail Gov. Smith's religion, but he asserted: "It does not behoove Gov. Smith, or any Roman Catholic, at this time to say anything to a Methodist about the church in politics. If the Roman church is a religious institution and that only, why does its head sit on a throne in a palace, in the midst of fabulous riches, with a crown on his head? Why is it that when you visit him you must get down upon your knees, in dog-like humility and kiss the sovereign hand, or if you are a Christian par excellence, kiss the bare foot of the Holy Father?"

Methodist Bishop Urges That Smith Be Opposed

By the Associated Press.
TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 13.—Bishop Titus Lowe of the Methodist Episcopal Church, yesterday urged every Methodist minister and layman to get into the political campaign this year in opposition to Alfred E. Smith, and "any move to bring liquor back to America," in opening the Puget Sound conference here yesterday.

The bishop devoted most of his address to a call to ministers to make their power felt politically in this campaign and in all "civil and political activities for righteousness."

Missouri Methodist Conference, South, Opposes Smith

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
SHELLENA, Mo., Sept. 12.—The annual Missouri conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which comprises all of Missouri north of the Missouri River, convened in its 112th session here yesterday with more than 200 pastors and delegates in attendance. Bishop W. F. McMurry presided. Alfred Smith, editor of the Christian Advocate, spoke.

The conference adopted a resolution which follows in part: "Methodism has always regarded the liquor traffic as the giant evil of modern times and in every battle against it has been in the vanguard. We pledge ourselves to support no one for President or any legislative body, who is opposed to the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act."

"Furthermore, we will not be in-

ALLIES' PLEDGE TO SHORTEN RHINE OCCUPATION DISCLOSED

Paper, Signed by Wilson, Clemenceau, and Lloyd George Was Interpretation of Versailles Treaty by Its Makers.

By ALBIN E. JOHNSON.
Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

GENEVA, Sept. 13.—Germany's trump card for forcing immediate evacuation of the Rhineland is a document bearing the signatures of Woodrow Wilson, Georges Clemenceau and David Lloyd George, written when the three were drafting the Versailles treaty in 1919.

The document was placed on the table Tuesday by Chancellor Mueller during his long discussion with Foreign Minister Briand of France, acting Foreign Secretary Coudenhove-Korner, Vittorio Scialoja of Italy, Foreign Minister Hyndman of Belgium and Ambassador Adachi of Japan.

The document was the treaty makers' official interpretation of Article 431 of the Versailles treaty. Upon it the Germans are basing their case. The document is headed "Declaration by the Government of the United States, Great Britain and France in regard to occupation of the Rhineland."

The text of the document follows:

"The allied and associated powers did not insist on making the period of occupation last until the reparations clauses were completely executed because they assumed that Germany would be obliged to give every proof of her good will and every necessary guarantee before the end of 15 years' time."

"As the cost of occupation involves an equivalent reduction of the amount available for reparations, the allied and associated powers stipulated by Article 431 of the treaty that, if before the end of the 15 years' period Germany has fulfilled all her obligations under the treaty the troops of occupation should be immediately withdrawn."

"If Germany, at an earlier date, has given proofs of her good will and satisfactory guarantees to assure fulfillment of her obligations, the allied and associated powers concerned will be ready to come to an agreement between themselves for earlier termination of the period of occupation."

Signed June 16, 1919.

The declaration was signed June 16, 1919. While Lord Coudenhove was silent on it, Briand at first denied such a document existed. But after the conference he instructed his experts to ascertain whether the declaration had any legal value in respect to the United States.

Germany's Contentment

The Germans contend that the Allies in admitting Germany to the League and in lifting military control, have recognized the Reich's timidity by the false cry of religious intolerance, which is but a smoke screen to hide the deformity of the enemies of prohibition of the liquor traffic."

Only one vote was recorded against the resolution.

Illinois Conference Also Hears Denunciation of Gov. Smith

PEORIA, Ill., Sept. 13.—Speaking as a representative of the Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, Rev. J. E. Skillington of Altoona, Pa., last night made a plea that "the candidacy of Alfred E. Smith be denounced from every pulpit of the Methodist Church in America," in an address before the Central and Illinois Conference of the church.

The Rev. Mr. Skillington said that "Smith's political practices for the last 25 years cause us to oppose him."

"He is the product of the Tammany machine, and Tammany is a byword in the nation and a symbol of predatory politics," the speaker said. "Smith has praised Tammany highly and when in the Legislature himself, was the friend of the saloon."

Senator Borah of Idaho refused to make an address scheduled for tonight because of what he termed the "political aspect" of the church meeting.

MOSLEM HOLY MAN HELD FOR OPPOSING REFORMS

King Amanullah of Afghanistan Orders Detention of Hazrat Sahib.

By the Associated Press.
PESHAWAR, Punjab, British India.—The Moslem holy man, Hazrat Sahib, has been arrested in Afghanistan for opposing reforms decreed by King Amanullah after the latter's return from his European tour.

It is reported that he especially opposed compulsory education for women and the abolition of the screen used to separate women of a household from male members of the family or visitors.

Hazrat, who wields a great influence in Afghanistan, was a favorite of Amanullah's predecessor. A number of his followers also were arrested, according to the dispatches, which state that they were escorted by troops to Kabul, the capital.

SMITH TO MEET NEW YORK STATE LEADERS TONIGHT

Meeting Called to Make Plans for Democrats' Nominating Convention, Oct. 1 and 2.

NOMINEE'S CHOICES NOT YET KNOWN

He Has Declared He Will Not Discus Ticket Until He Addresses Gathering at Rochester.

By the Associated Press.
ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 13.—The political situation in New York State, which Gov. Smith's managers say must line up for him in November if he is to win over Herbert Hoover, drew the attention of the Democratic presidential nominee as State party leaders gathered for a conference with him at the executive mansion.

The meeting, scheduled for tonight, was set aside for a general discussion of organization work preparatory to the State nominating convention at Rochester Oct. 1 and 2 when a ticket will be named and a platform adopted. Smith has not indicated whom he will favor for Governor or any other post.

M. William Bray, new Democratic State Chairman, and Mrs. Caroline O'Day, vice chairman, were among the party leaders here today for the conference. Tomorrow the same leaders will go to Utica, home town of Bray, to confer with the Democratic County Chairmen and State Committeemen and map out further plans of organization.

Smith Withholding Choice

Should Smith give the slightest hint regarding his preference for a gubernatorial candidate, it is almost certain that his choice will not be made public at this time. The Governor has said repeatedly he will not discuss the State ticket until the State convention is held, when he plans to address it.

Addressing the State Committee two weeks ago at Syracuse, he argued widespread efforts to get eligible voters to register and declared a victory for the Democrats for State offices and Congress was just as important as a victory for him. He warned, however, that the State campaign should not become absorbed in the efforts to bring success to him in November.

In a statement, dictated during his daily conference with newspaper men, Smith again asserted that the Governor's duty was to lead the people to a better government.

"Mr. Mills has said all over again the same things he said during the campaign in 1926. He said the State debt was not reduced. That statement is not so. He said that the increase in the State debt had been applied to tax reduction. That is not so. The direct tax, as I said in my statement (of last Monday) was reduced by some $18,000,000."

Baseball Pool Dispute

During the day Smith also made public a letter to Clarence A. Barnes, candidate for Attorney-General in Massachusetts, who has criticized him on the grounds that he had failed to act against the Albany baseball pool.

Accepting an invitation of the Governor to come here and point out the pool's headquarters, Barnes sent word that he would do so Sept. 19. Smith, however, said he would be out of town on that date and suggested that Barnes lay any evidence of law violations before the District Attorney of Albany County.

He has promised me," the Governor told Barnes, "that he would vigorously pursue before the grand jury every bit of evidence you are able to lay before him."

Bruce Kremer, national committeeman of Montana, and former United States Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock of Omaha, Neb., will accompany Gov. Smith on his Western stumping tour starting Sunday.

Promises to Give Evidence on Albany Pool Saturday

BOSTON, Sept. 13.—Clarence A. Barnes, candidate for the Republican nomination for Attorney-General of Massachusetts, has declared in a letter to Gov. Smith that, in a public address in Pemberton Square, here, next Saturday, he would name the principal operators of the so-called Albany baseball pool.

He said also that he will name the headquarters of the pool which, he declared, was "within two minutes' walk" of the Capitol.

Curtis Calls on Coolidge.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Senator Curtis of Kansas called at the White House today to present his respects to the chief executive. Curtis remained closeted with Mr. Coolidge 20 minutes, when the chief executive escorted him to the entrance of the executive offices, where they were photographed together.

Henri Canvas for St. Louis Exhibition

ROBERT HENRI'S "Gypsy of Madrid," one of the outstanding pictures in the twenty-third invitation exhibition of American painting, which will open at the City Art Museum Saturday. Henri's canvases hang in virtually all the American museums and several foreign ones, notably the Luxembourg. Most of them are gypsy pictures.

Contemporary American Art To Be Shown at City Museum

23d Annual Exhibition of Paintings to Open Saturday and Remain on View for Six Weeks.

THE exhibition which each year brings more viewers to the City Art Museum than any other will be opened Saturday for six weeks. It is the annual exhibition of Contemporary American painting—the Museum's twenty-third such showing.

Ninety canvases from as many artists, including 16 from St. Louis, are hung in four galleries. The pictures were chosen from exhibitions of the Chicago Art Institute, the Pennsylvania Academy, the National Academy of Design, and lesser shows in Buffalo, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Toledo.

It is not asserted that the show embraces all the notable American artists. Indeed, it was deliberately calculated to leave out many leading artists whose work has been made familiar to St. Louisans by frequent inclusion in past exhibitions. Rather, the aim was to introduce newer, unfamiliar artists whose brushes, nevertheless, are contributing worthily to the general trend of American painting.

Show Offers No Prizes

And it is regrettable, but nevertheless a fact, that many ranking artists who frequently have sent their work to St. Louis are becoming lukewarm to the invitation. There is no prize in the St. Louis show and hence nothing of concrete honor to be attained. Nor have the pictures in the shows here found many purchasers. The average has been about one each three years.

The Museum, in its catalogue of the show, takes cognizance of this condition, and urges: "It is hoped that our citizens will extend a liberal patronage and acquire paintings for the decoration of their homes and thus add to the cultural wealth of the community." The Museum, from time to time, draws upon this show for additions to its own permanent collection.

Not many years ago American shows were predominated by landscape, or more or less timeworn patterns. This show is a medley of street scenes, snow pictures, portrait and figure painting, architectural painting, industrial scenes, marines, still lifes and moonlights. Its range is one of its notable aspects. Moreover, the manner of painting runs the gamut—variously, modernistic, representative, imaginative and decorative. It seems clearly to denote an ascending versatility and exploratory confidence in American art.

Pictures Have High Average

A high average rather than a few outstanding pictures is another obvious characteristic. The show

COOLIDGE TO TAKE ACTIVE PART IN HOOVER CAMPAIGN

President Likely to Speak in New England, Where Democrats Are Showing Strength.

HE AND NOMINEE CONFER FOR HOUR

Chief Executive Reports on Situation in Wisconsin and Other Northwestern States.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—President Coolidge is to participate actively in the presidential campaign and his plans probably will be announced at the White House soon.

His part in the effort of the Republican party to retain control of the national Government formed one of the subjects of a conference he had with Herbert Hoover at the executive offices late yesterday after his return from his vacation in Northern Wisconsin.

The conference lasted for an hour and a quarter. There was no official announcement regarding the meeting, but it was stated that the chief executive was eager to be helpful in the campaign. This naturally led to the surmise that on his forthcoming visit to New England, Coolidge will make one or more speeches in a small portion of the country, in some portions of which the Republicans have had to contend with rather stiff opposition.

Hoover made a rather complete report to the President on the political situation generally as he views it at this stage of the campaign and the President in turn gave his opinion as to the situation in Wisconsin and other Northwestern states from which he received reports during his stay at Brule, Wis.

After the conference, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon accompanied the President and Hoover to the entrance to the executive offices where the camera men were waiting, but it was learned that the Treasury chief had not been present at the political discussion. He arrived at the executive offices over his accustomed route to a rear entrance just as the conference ended, having called to pay his respects, as he was unable to greet the President on his arrival in the capital forenoon.

Returning to his headquarters, Hoover conferred with several callers before having dinner with Senator George W. Moses of New Hampshire, vice chairman of the Eastern Republican Campaign Committee, who said an abundance of the returns from the Maine election.

Prescription He Wrote in 1892 is the World's Most Popular Laxative

When Dr. Caldwell started to practice medicine, back in 1875, the needs for a laxative were not as great as they are today. People lived normal, quiet lives, ate plain, wholesome food, and got plenty of fresh air and sunshine. But even that early there were drastic physicians and purges for the relief of constipation which Dr. Caldwell did not believe were good for human beings to put into their system. So he wrote a prescription for a laxative to be used by his patients.

The prescription for constipation that he used early in his practice and which he put in drug stores is 1892 under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a liquid vegetable remedy, intended for women, children and elderly people, and they need just such a mild, safe, gentle bowel stimulant as Syrup Pepsin.

HELEN WILLS TO PLAY BEFORE 4300 HERE

Attendance at Tennis Champion's Exhibition in Forest Park Limited by Association

Announcement was made today by the Missouri Valley Tennis Association that only 2500 spectators may see Helen Wills in action on each of the two days she will participate in exhibitions at the Triple A tennis courts in Forest Park. Saturday and Sunday afternoons, Sept. 22-23. This will be the first visit to St. Louis of the holder of the world's amateur tennis championship for women. Several plans for her entertainment here have been submitted for her approval, but in all probability she will stay at Hotel Chase. All seats, both reserved and otherwise, have been placed on sale at Leacock's store, 921 Locust street. There are 855 reserved seats, at $2.50 each, in the west stand; 400 unreserved seats, at $2 each, in the north bleachers; and the remaining seats, at $1 each, are in the east bleachers. The association anticipates that all these seats will be sold at the downtown office before the exhibitions. There will be no standing room.

Dr. F. E. Diekenite, president of the St. Louis District Tennis Association, is chairman of the committee on arrangements, being assisted by Davison O'bear and Carl Kammann.

tion showed that "the Democrats themselves intend to avert the menace which now hangs over their party by reason of the seizure of its organization by a group who are Democrats only in name and for revenue only."

With the preparation of his Newark speech behind him and only a few engagements for today, Hoover was able to relax somewhat from the grind of the last week, but he has before him in the next few days such a mass of detail to consider that he virtually has given up hope of a fishing trip in Chesapeake Bay tomorrow and Saturday. Some of his advisers are insisting, however, that he take a few days off for rest and recreation.

AMERICAN ART TO BE SHOWN AT CITY MUSEUM

hangs rather obscurely, but is worth searching out.

Auerbach-Levy Self Portrait. There are several other portraits, among them a characteristic Spanish gypsy by Robert Henri, long one of the country's leading figure painters, who is represented in the museum's permanent collection by a dancing girl, "Joan," by Cecil Clark Davis, a strong portrait of a very confident young woman, and a very interesting self-portrait by William Auerbach-Levy of New York, whose fame as an etcher is international.

There are an unusual number of snow pictures, and the contrasts in the manner of painting snow form an absorbing study. Aldro T. Hibbard, A. N. A., quite universally accredited as the best snow painter in America, exhibits the picture that won the second Altman prize of $500 in the 1925 show of the National Academy of Design, the premier exhibition of the country. Hibbard has painted a northern balsam wood and apparently has sought to make his snow contribute to the gray solitude of northern winters. It is the tone of the snow rather than its texture that is noteworthy.

Nat Little has treated his forest in snow impressionistically, suggesting the poetry of snow. His technique is that of a mosaic or a closely woven tapestry. Walter Emerson Baum, long a landscape painter of power, has "The Church on the Hill," but it is the snow which makes the picture. He paints light and shadows upon snow. The light sparkles and flashes. The shadows denote depth and might in snow. The fourth notable snow picture is by Carl Lawless. His is blanket snow, enveloping and mysterious.

Uses Fingerprint Signature. Karl Kraft of Chicago, in whose work local interest will be heightened by the fact that he is of the Ozark school of painters, has a landscape remarkable for its treatment of trees, but lacking in background. Kraft is the first painter in any St. Louis show, to identify his picture by a fingerprint, a modern device for unquestioned future identification. If the old masters had known about fingerprints, endless squabbles never would have occurred and countless millions of pictures never would have been duped.

There are two unusual, purely modernistic pictures which will cause much comment and provoke discussion. One is a marine by Hugh H. Breckenridge, A. N. A., in which the artist has employed pure color to the exclusion of almost everything else. His boats are not things of substance, but things of color. His water has none of the quality commonly attributed to water. He has sought and painted only the colors that he sees in water.

Even more remarkable is the bathing group of Jean MacLane, N. A. She has employed light almost solely to give body to her figures, and the effect is sculptural. Another extraordinary modern is the "Harbor at Middy" of Hayley Lever, an international painter. His painting of movement in water is scintillating.

John F. Carlson has a characteristic landscape. Emil Carlson is missing, but his son, Dines, has a typical Carlson still life.

Examples of Taos Group. The Taos group as represented by Herbert Dunton, whose landscape is accounted one of the best of his recent paintings; O. E. Berninghaus of St. Louis, whose figures and mountain denote that Berninghaus still is growing; E. Irving Couse, with his familiar squatted Indians under moonlight, and Walter Ufer, not in his best vein.

For the first time in many years, there is a picture by Richard Miller, most successful of all painters which this city has produced. It is not a recent Miller, however, and throws no light upon his late work. It is a portrait of Dr. A. E. Swing of St. Louis, painted many years ago before Miller left St. Louis and before the point in his career when he was freed of the necessity of painting primarily for remuneration. It is accounted a faithful likeness and not without Miller skill.

The other St. Louis artists in the show are Tom Barnett, showing his "Road to the Sea," which gained honorable mention at the Chicago Art Institute in 1922; Fred G. Carpenter; Kathryn E. Cherry; Mabel Meeker Edsall, a portrait; C. K. Gleason, "Under the Eucalyptus"; Agnes Lodwick, "Red Roofs," a faithful picture of a French countryside; J. Scott McNutt, large portrait of Edmund Wuerpel, painter and director of the St. Louis School of Fine Arts; Frank Nuderscher, new picture of Eads Bridge, which he has done often;

Charles F. Quest Jr., a newcomer to the show; Jessie Beard Rickly, "The Deserted House"; Florence Ver Steeg, another flower picture; Valentine Vogel, "Through the Window"; Stanley Bishop Warner, "Alps of Savoy," and E. Oscar Thallinger, most advanced of the local moderns, a striking mountain bathing scene.

BARGE LINE CONGESTED BY GRAIN SHIPMENTS
September Expected to Be Record Month—Remedy to Be Sought.
The seasonal peak of the export grain movement by Federal barge line has brought about a serious congestion here. September so far indicates that it will be the record grain month in the history of the line.
The Upper Mississippi barge line, which got fairly under way this year in its first full season, has about 1,000,000 bushels to handle before ice closes the channel. This tonnage is being transferred at St. Louis from the light-draft upper river barges to the larger type in use on the lower section, and the "marina leg" at the Municipal dock, with a capacity of about 20,000 bushels a day, is overtaxed. Grain shipments from St. Louis and Cairo also are near the peak.
Major-General T. Q. Ashburn, head of the Inland Waterways Corporation, is en route to St. Louis today to confer with grain exporters and Operating Manager Higgins as to the best and most immediate means of relief. Beginning about the middle of next month, Upper River barges will carry grain directly to New Orleans to eliminate the necessity of transfer at St. Louis. Further measures will be discussed with Ashburn. Shippers are desirous of guarding against a recurrence of the congestion next season.
St. Louis advocates of river improvement will join with Upper Mississippi shippers tomorrow at Minneapolis in a conference on the proposed deepening of the six-foot channel above St. Louis to a minimum of nine feet.
A preliminary report of District Engineer Hall of Rock Island is said to hold that prospective traffic would not warrant the cost of a survey for the nine-foot channel. The Mississippi Valley Association, which has headquarters in St. Louis, has called the conference to gather evidence for presentation to the Army Board of Engineers which will hold a public hearing on Maj. Hall's report.
W. K. Kavanaugh, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Rivers Improvement Committee, will represent St. Louis.

FRANK C. RAND ELECTED TO BIG FOUR DIRECTORATE
Frank C. Rand, president of the International Shoe Co., has been elected a director of the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway, known as the Big Four, the most important subsidiary of the New York Central system. Rand and Fred J. Fisher of Detroit, vice president of the General Motors Corporation, were elected yesterday at a stockholders' meeting in New York.
Rand succeeds the late F. J. Jerome of Cleveland and Fisher the late Chauncey M. Depew. The corporations they represent are two of the largest shippers in the country. The election of Fisher disclosed that the Fisher brothers of Detroit have bought heavily into the New York Central, controlled by the Vanderbilt family.

Read this great story of the man who came back . . . came back to face the accusing gray eyes of the son he had never known. Son of the woman he had condemned!
THERE were two women in his life . . . and his heart cried out for one. Two sons . . . and he knew only of the one who was dead. Poorer men might envy his wealth—but the lowliest beggar could have bought his happiness. Irene! Irene! Where was she now?
That little girl, so lovable, so adorable, so completely his own . . . the little girl who didn't quite make good . . . in the eyes of his shallow, gilded world. Irene!
Year after year, the winds of forgetfulness snatched that cry from his lips, stilled it in his heart.
And how often, his petulant society "wife" would stare at him and shrill out—"My dear, what are you thinking of?" . . . Of the son that she was too weak, too fashionable, to bring forth living?
Until there came a day and a happiness that broke his heart!
That brilliant, forceful boy he met by chance—what was there in his voice, his manner, that made the older man tremble almost in fear? And who was that stranger he called "Father"? And how could it be that—
But you must read this tremendous story in the gripping words of the man who lived it. An amazing drama—with an ending that will leave you breathless. MEETING TO DISCUSS UNIFORM TRAFFIC CODE IN ST. LOUIS

Committee of Safety Council to Consider Adoption of National Rules Made Last Year.

A meeting has been called to consider adoption in St. Louis of the model municipal traffic code drafted last year by representatives of numerous cities under direction of the Department of Commerce. The meeting will be held by the Traffic Committee of the Safety Council at luncheon at Hotel Statler next Wednesday.

The purpose is to obtain uniformity of regulations throughout the country, for the benefit of motor travelers. The Traffic Committee comprises representatives of the city, public utilities, truck owners, civic organizations and business in general. Oliver T. Remmers is chairman.

GROVE AGAIN SUED BY FATHER'S NURSE

She Seeks $50,000 From Millionaire for Alleged Intimidation.

Suit for $50,000 damages was filed here yesterday against Edwin W. Grove, multimillionaire president of the Paris Medicine Co., by Miss Ruby Dellinger, who nursed Grove's father, founder of the medicine company, during the illness that ended in his death at Asheville, N. C., in January, 1927.

The suit is similar to one for $100,000 filed last December by Miss Dellinger against Grove at Asheville, which has not gone to trial.

In the second petition, Miss Dellinger relates that the elder Grove was taken ill in a Philadelphia hotel in November, 1926, and summoned her from New York. She was assigned to an adjoining room and served as day nurse until Dec. 13, when, she alleges, Grove's son and two other men, one posing as a policeman, forced their way into her room. Under threats of arrest, they compelled her to dress and take a train for New York. Miss Dellinger asserts. She returned to Philadelphia, but again was intimidated into taking a train for New York.

York. Miss Dellinger adds.

Grove has denied slandering or "hounding" Miss Dellinger. He admitted renting a room at the Philadelphia hotel and boring a hole in a door to watch the woman who was nursing his elderly father.

Bismarck Votes Down Bond Issue.

BOY, 13, SAVES FIVE BROTHERS IN FIRE

Newark, N. J., Lad Drops Them From Second Floor While Home Burns.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 12.—John Manella, 13 years old, saved his five younger brothers by dropping them from a second floor window into the arms of a neighbor when fire swept their home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Manella, parents of the children, were absent when Florence, their 11-year-old daughter discovered the fire a few minutes after midnight. She ran to the street for help, while John hurried through the house, rousing Frank, 9, Vito, 10, Alphonse, 12, Joseph, 6, and James Jr., 4.

Flames had cut off escape by the stairs and the rooms were rapidly filling with smoke. John led all except James to the front window and let them drop 12 feet into the arms of George Policastro, next door neighbor.

Then John groped through the smoke and picked up James, arms and followed himself. A few minutes later flames were sweeping the house and communicated to an adjoining tenement. Police and firemen told James: "We couldn't have done the rescue job any better than you."

Defeated Candidates' Expenses.

Four Republicans who ran for office, but were defeated yesterday filed campaign expense reports with the Recorder of Deeds as follows: Horace G. Beedle, candidate for Public Administrator, spent $2253; Rudolph Schneider, candidate for Circuit Judge, $112; Henry Woods, candidate for City Treasurer, $142; A. E. Wagoner, candidate for Commissioner of Twenty-seventh Ward, $183.

ASTOR HEIRS OPPOSE $39,000,000 CLAIM

Seek Dismissal of Suit Filed by Descendants of John Emerick & Brothers.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Heirs of the estate of John Jacob Astor Sr. yesterday took steps in Federal Court against the $39,000,000 claim made against the fortune by Edna Carnahan, Christine Campbell and John Thomas Emerick, descendants of the brothers of John Nicholas Emerick of Germantown, Pa., who is said to have been Astor's partner.

Counsel for the Farmers' Loan and Trust Co. and for William Vincent Astor entered motions for dismissal of the suit on the ground that "so long a time has elapsed since the matters and things complained of took place that it would be contrary to equity and good conscience to take cognizance thereof." These motions will be heard tomorrow by Federal Judge Thatcher.

The plaintiffs, represented by many lawyers, claim that in 1787 Emerick and Astor entered into a partnership, the former holding a two-thirds interest, and that Emerick turned over more than $1,000,000 worth of property in the form of coal lands, ships and New York real estate to Astor with the understanding that at the end of 99 years, which expired in 1985, Emerick's heirs would receive the accruing fortune.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 12.—Many passengers were shaken, several were bruised and John Romaker, fireman, of Toledo, suffered injuries shortly before 9 a. m. today when the Red Arrow, Pennsylvania passenger train from New York to Detroit, ran through an open switch in Lincoln Park, Detroit suburb, and crashed into a string of loaded freight cars. Romaker was injured when he jumped as the locomotive struck the cars. None of the coaches was derailed. A switchman, who has disappeared, was said to be responsible for the crash.

Better than Soda for Sour, Gassy Stomach

"For quite some time I used soda for gas and sourness. Then I decided to try Adlerika and found it far better than soda."—Ed McNell.
The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, saline, etc. (known as Adlerika), has a most surprising DOUBLE action. First, it acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel (most medicines act on lower bowel only) and removes foul matter that often causes the system for months. Second, Adlerika clears all GAS and sourness from stomach and bowels, bringing INSTANT relief from stomach trouble. And in addition, Adlerika removes metabolic poisons which cause neuritis, rheumatism, etc.
Dr. H. L. Shoup, New York, writes: "Adlerika, in addition to its

CROWDING
IN SCHOOL

By Chas. A. L. Reed, M. D.
Former President of the American Medical Association.

Y OUR child is back at school.
Has he there enough fresh air to breathe?

He has not if, even under conditions of good ventilation, he has less than 640 cubic feet of air space for himself.

In fact, a school that has only that much air space per pupil is crowded.

But in the absence of good ventilation there may be a much larger allotment of air space per capita and the room will still be crowded.

Various workers and experimenters, says T. J. Duffield, have shown that the cause of the discomfort experienced in overcrowded and overheated rooms is not the increase of carbon dioxide in the air.

But important as are the changes in the composition of the atmosphere as a result of human occupancy, what really matters is the temperature and humidity. The earlier belief that the carbon dioxide content of the air, factor, naturally affected State and local regulations about ventilation.

The practice of mechanical ventilation of school buildings has continued to reflect the influence of the belief in the harmfulness of "crowd poisons." In school ventilation it was assumed that the child did not require as much fresh air as did the adult, with the result that mechanical systems of ventilation have generally been designed to furnish 50 cubic feet of fresh air for each child per minute.

Varying the quantity of air according to the temperature, says Duffield, does not appear to have been suggested in ventilation legislation. A rational approach to the establishment of scientific standard of air change in classrooms should include consideration of the heat output of the pupils and of the temperature of the incoming air.

One of the functions of any system of heating is to heat air entering the rooms by infiltration, and to compensate for heat losses through walls and ceilings and around doors and windows. In other words, an attempt is made to establish equilibrium between the heat lost and that supplied.

Adult comfort is by no means a reliable index of the most healthful temperature of a classroom for the pupils. The heat output of a child is greater per unit of body surface.

The best temperature for a child is lower than that at which the majority of teachers, particularly under average conditions of modern feminine dress, will feel comfortable. As between the comfort of the teacher and the health of a roomful of pupils there is but one choice: the room temperature must be kept down and the teacher must dress accordingly.

As an illustration, suppose the outdoor temperature is 40 F. and the desired indoor temperature is not to exceed 66 F. in a roomful of first grade pupils. Then a calculation shows that the needs of the scholars are 7 cubic feet of fresh air per pupil per minute.

It appears that the modern conception of what is desired in school ventilation is correct, the practice of always supplying 50 cubic feet of fresh or recirculated air for each child per minute is not only unnecessary but wasteful. It will only be needed if the outside temperature rises to 85 F. where a roomful of 15-year-old pupils is to be kept below 66 F. The first-grade pupils require 20 cubic feet of air at 60 to keep the room temperature from exceeding 66 F.

These are technical points with the practical application of which you, as a parent, can have but little to do, but they are gone over first to show you how scientists are laboring for the welfare of humanity and next, how the laws of science—the natural laws—are being gradually revealed for the guidance and protection of life in the development period that we call youth.

Kitchen Kinks

Corncorn and vinegar will remove fruit stains from the hands.

Stains on the fingers caused by preparing vegetables can be removed by holding the hands in very strong tea for a few minutes. Then wash with soap and clear water. The stains will have disappeared.

Watercress is a dainty garnish for the platter of scrambled eggs.

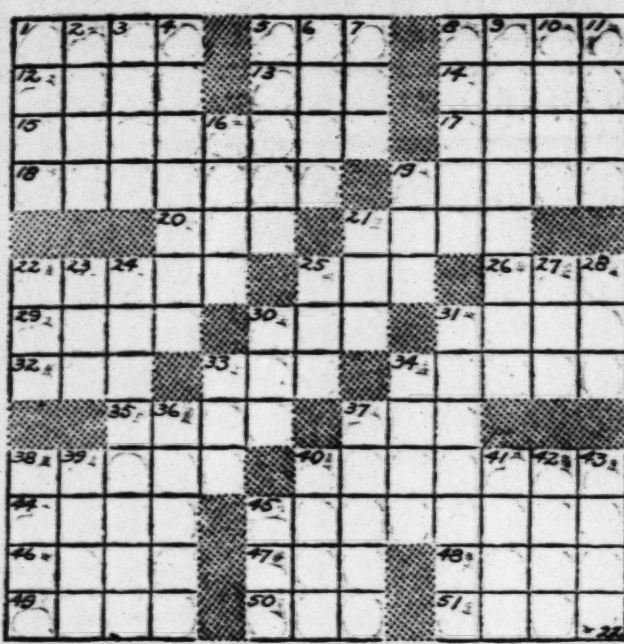

A slice of lemon stewed with the prunes adds much to the flavor.

Balls of cream cheese rolled in finely chopped parsley are nice served with the salad.

Chop Suet.

Try making it at home sometime. Trim and cut 2 pounds beefsteak into small pieces. Brown in chicken fat or butter. When nicely browned add two cups finely cut celery and four chopped onions salt, pepper and water to cover. Cover and simmer for one hour. The water will be almost gone when done. Add one tablespoonful Chinese soy sauce and serve with boiled rice.

ETIQUETTE

By Kathrine de Peyster

DON'T USE YOUR FINGERS.

WE HAVE had a dispute as to whether or not it is proper to eat chicken or lamb chops with the fingers. What do you think?

It is not proper to eat chicken or lamb chops in the fingers, since it is not possible to do this in a "neat and tidy" manner. And also the sight of a person eating chicken or lamb chop in the fingers is far from pleasant to the companion who sits opposite.

IN BAD TASTE.
Do you think it proper for a married woman who, going to business, allows an office boy and other men to address her by her first name and not "Mrs.?" I think if they are allowed this privilege, they think it allows them more, and they will lose respect.

I agree with you, wholeheartedly and enthusiastically. This business woman should have such class and acquire, that there would not be even a possibility of office boys presuming to call her by her first name. For a woman who would allow them to call her by her first name, they certainly would lose respect.

THE BRIDGE TEA.

I AM a young girl (sixteen) and have entertained a great deal, and might conclude that I know something about etiquette. But here is my problem. I do not know how to send out my invitations for a bridge tea. I cannot remember just which corner "tea," "date," and so forth should be written on my visiting card.

2. All the girls that I have on my list are girls in my own class. Would it be necessary to put R. s. v. p. on the cards?
3. Another thing which I am puzzled about is the time for a bridge tea. Is two o'clock correct?
4. I am going to hire a woman to serve at the table. Is it absolutely wrong to have one of these Chinese boys wait on the table for a tea? I have always had a boy wait on the table at all my bridge luncheons, but I just heard that it is wrong to have him serve at a tea. Was that information correct?

5. What does a hostess usually reply, when upon leaving, her guests thank her for the lovely afternoon?
M. C.

1. On your visiting cards, write the items of information—what kind of party, day, hour, and class (since your address is not engraved on your card) your street address. Write the street address in the lower right corner, where it would be if it were engraved on the card. Then above your name write "Bridge and tea." Under your name you may write three o'clock.

2. If you want answers to your invitations—and you probably do, since you must arrange places for bridge, write the R. s. v. p. (all small letters except the R) under "three o'clock."
3. Two o'clock is a good hour, though perhaps a bit early. Half after two or three o'clock offers a more convenient hour for friends who have luncheon engagements.

4. Yes, this information is more or less correct. At least it is generally taken for granted that the service at tea is very informal, and is, as much as possible, done by the hostess and one or two of her friends, whom she may ask to "assist" her as co-hostesses.

5. The hostess usually thanks each friend for coming to the party. "Good day, Florence. Thank you so much for coming today." Or, "It was so kind of you to come to my party. I hope I am to see you again soon."

Children's Bedtime Story

By THORNTON W. BURGESS.

TRADER DISPLAYS HIS TREASURES

Trash to you, to me is treasure.
If possession gives me pleasure.
—Trader Wood Rat.

AS YOU all know, Trader the Wood Rat is a collector. If he couldn't be collecting things he never would be happy. It doesn't make a great deal of difference to Trader what he collects so long as he collects something. Like Blacky the Crow, he likes shiny things.

He had decided to move back to the sugar house, where Whitefoot the Wood Mouse and Little Mrs. Whitefoot were living. And when Trader was up his mind to do a thing he does it. So he wasted no time. Trader chose a dark corner underneath one end of the bunk in the sugar house. To this he began bringing sticks. He dragged them in through a hole in the ground where the woodpile had been. This hole led out of doors. Trader likes a very big nest. It seemed to Whitefoot and Mrs. Whitefoot that Trader was bringing in all the dead sticks in the Green Forest. He was a hard worker, was Trader. It was his nature to work hard. There is nothing lazy about him. He believes that if people want things they must work for them.

When Trader had his new home arranged to suit him he was no less busy than before. He began bringing in his treasures. Whitefoot and Mrs. Whitefoot could simply sit and stare. To begin with, he brought, one at a time, a good-sized pile of white pebbles.

"What under the sun does he want of those things?" whispered Mrs. Whitefoot.
"It's too much for me," declared Whitefoot, examining the pile, while Trader was gone for another stone. "He can't eat 'em. I don't know what he's got them for."

A little later Whitefoot discovered that Trader had a lot of new treasures. These consisted of bits of shell from the Laughing Brook and of small bones which had been whitened by exposure to the weather. There was a lot of what you and I would call "trash." He gloated over these treasures. He expected Whitefoot the Wood Mouse and Mrs. Whitefoot to gloat over them also. But Mr. and Mrs.

Whitefoot were not even interested.

"If it were food I would understand it," said Mrs. Whitefoot. "But what he wastes his time collecting all that useless stuff for I don't see. It's too much for me."

Meanwhile, Trader was storing his treasures away in different places. The pebbles he put in one place, the bits of bone in another, the pieces of shell in a third place, and so on. Each was kept separate.

"Don't you store any food?" inquired Whitefoot.
"Certainly, Cousin, certainly," replied Trader. "But it isn't time yet. You wait 'til the nuts get ripe. I believe in having plenty to eat in the winter and no member of the squirrel family works harder than I do at the proper season. Now I must hurry away. When I was out the last time I saw something white and shiny in the moonlight. I couldn't stop to pick it up then, but I'm going back after it now."

Off ran Trader. It wasn't long before he was back again. He had the handle of an old crockery cup. It was one that had been broken in the sugar camp and thrown out. "Just look at that!" cried Trader, admiringly. "Isn't that the nicest thing? See how it shines! Don't you wish you had it?"
"No," replied Whitefoot.
"No," replied Mrs. Whitefoot.

Getting the Loot Back

By James M. Cain.

"GOOD evening."
"Good evening."
"I guess we've seen each other a couple of times before, haven't we? Me and my wife, we live downstairs."
"Yeah. I know who you are. What do you want?"
"Just want to talk to you about something."
"Well—come in."
"No. Just close that door behind you and we'll sit on the steps."
"All right. That suits me. Now what's the big idea?"
"Today we was robbed. Somebody come in the apartment, turned the whole place inside out, and got away with some money and my wife's jewelry. Three rings and a couple of wrist watches. It's got her broke up pretty bad. I got her in bed now, but she's crying and carrying on all the time. I feel right down sorry for her. Well, that's tough. But what you coming to me about it for?"
"Nothing special. But of course I'm trying to find out who done it, so I thought I would come around and see you. Just to see if you got any idea about it."
"Yeah?"
"That's it."
"Well, I haven't got no idea. You haven't? That's funny."
"What's funny about it?"
"Some like most everybody on the block has a idea about it. I ain't got in the house yet before about seven people stopped me and told me about it, and all of them had a idea about who done it. Of course, some of them ideas wasn't much good, but still they was ideas. So you haven't got no idea?"
"No, I haven't got no idea. And what's more, you're too late."
"How you mean, too late?"
"I mean them detectives has been up here already. I mean that fine wife of yours sent them up here, and what I want to say about this I told them, and I ain't got time to say it over again for you. And let me tell you something: You tell any more detectives I was the one robbed your place, and that's right where the trouble starts. They got laws in this country. They got laws against people that goes around telling lies about their neighbors, and don't you think for a minute you're going to get by with that stuff no more. You get me?"
"I'll be doggone. Them cops been up here already? They boys sure do work fast, don't they?"
"Yeah, they work fast when some fool woman that has lost a couple of rings calls up the station house and fills them full of lies. They work fast, but they don't always work so good. They ain't got nothing on me a tall, see? So you're wasting your time, just like they did."
"What did you tell them, if you don't mind my asking?"
"I told them just what I'm telling you: That I don't know a thing about you or your wife, or your flat, or who robbed you, or what goes on down there, 'cepting I wish to hell you would turn off that radio at night once, so I can get some sleep. That's what I told them, and if you don't like it you know what you can do."
"Well, now, old man, I tell you. Fact of the matter, my wife didn't send them cops up here at all. When she come home and found out we was robbed, why it got her all excited. So she rung up the station house and told the cops what she found and then she went to bed. And that's where she's at now. She ain't seen no detectives. She's to see them tomorrow. So it looks like them detectives thought up this little visit all by herself, don't it?"
"What do you mean?"
"I mean maybe even them detectives could figure out that this here job was done by somebody that knowed all about me and my wife, when we was home, when we was out, and all like of that. And specially, that it was done by somebody that knowed we had the money in the house to pay the last installment on the furniture."
"How would I know that?"
"Well, you might know by remembering what time the man come around to get the money last month, and then figuring he would come around in the same day this month, and that we would have the money here waiting for him. That would be one way, wouldn't it?"
"Let me tell you something, fellow: I don't know a thing about this, or your furniture, or the collector, or nothing. And there ain't nothing to show that I know. So you ain't got nothing on me, see? So shag on. Go on down where you come from. So shut up. So that's all. So good-by."
"Now, not so fast."
"What now? I ain't going to stay out here all night."
"I'm just thinking about something. First off, we ain't got nothing on you. That sure is a fact. We ain't got nothing on you at all. Next off, them detectives ain't got nothing on you. They called me up a little while ago and told me so. Said they couldn't prove nothing."
"It's about time you was getting wise to yourself."
"Just the same, you are the one that done it."
"Huh?"
"I say you are the one that done it."
"All right. All right. I'm the one that done it. Now go ahead and prove it."
"Ain't going to try to prove it. That's a funny thing, ain't it? Them detectives, when they start out on a thing like this, they always got to prove something."

Some Chinese Girls Prefer Bound Feet

FOOTBINDING here is stopped by force. Shop keepers who were "urged" to paint their doors and gates a "Nationalist blue" do not resent the new reforms nearly so much as the young women and girls who have had their tightly wound foot cloths forcibly removed by the authorities in the street.

In the country districts of Honan province much trouble has been caused from time to time by an organization called the Miao hui Kuei which has been urging the women to cling to their old time custom of binding their feet despite all the orders to the contrary by Government officials.

This movement was launched by the priests who have been driven from their temples. The aim is to oppose Marshal Feng Yu-hsiang, the so-called Christian General, the new Government and the cause of Christianity which the leaders have proclaimed are responsible for destruction of the temple idols and the order putting foot binding under the ban.

One of the largest dams in Europe will be built in Germany to obtain power from the Saale River.

A DISH FOR TODAY

Spanish Tart.
Beat to a cream three-quarters of a pound of butter and a pound of sugar. Add two beaten eggs and beat well. Sift in slowly a pint of pastry flour and a tablespoonful each of cinnamon, cloves and ground sweet seeds. Knead thoroughly, then roll out one-quarter of an inch thick and cut with fancy cutters, in diamonds, hearts, crescents, rounds or oblongs. Lay on a buttered pan two inches apart and bake a delicate brown in a medium oven. Dust with cinnamon and sugar as soon as removed from the oven.

TRUE LIFE STORY OF THE PRINCE OF WALES

BY WALTER AND LEONARD TOWNSEND.

INSTALLMENT XXI
THE AUSTRALIAN TOUR.
AFTER the Prince's tour in Canada he looked forward with eagerness to his trip to the Antipodes. One chilly March morning the royal party went up the gangway of the Renown, which lay in Portsmouth Harbor.

The Prince insisted that there should be no undue ceremonial in connection with his presence on board. He took part with the officers in the usual deck games; inspected with the Captain the parades of the men, and dined either with the Captain and his own staff or invited various officers to his own suite.

During the mornings he would read in the quiet of his own cabin. The Prince believes in being fully prepared before he embarks on any of his empire tours. He always insists on doing his own share of work towards making the tour a success.

There was a tragic incident which subdued the Prince and the whole ship's company just before the Renown reached Barbadoes. A gunner fell overboard during a rough sea and despite the utmost attempts to save him, he was drowned. The Prince attended the funeral service which was held in the fore-castle and sent a radio message of condolence to the lost sailor's relatives.

The first break in the Australian tour was made at Bridgetown, the capital of the Barbadoes. As soon as the Renown dropped anchor off the island she was surrounded by boats of all kinds, and as their occupants cheered the Prince stood at the top of the gangway saluting and smiling.

The Prince's leisure had come to a temporary end. There were speeches to make, ex-service men to chat with and shake hands, sugar factories to visit and look over. Throughout the whole city, crowds lined the route. This was perhaps the first meeting between the Prince and some of the black subjects of his father in their own land.

Negroes and Negroesses stood in black serried mass, nearly all their heads swathed in Union Jacks! As H. R. H. passed slowly through little villages of wooden huts, he frequently alighted to pass a pleasant word with the inhabitants and to inspect the school children or Boy Scouts. At the state dinner held in the evening, the Prince was received with a storm of applause. He contradicted the rumor that part of the West Indies were to be sold to America.

"The King's subjects are not for sale," the Prince said, quietly.

From the Barbadoes, in the Caribbean Sea, the Renown, escorted by the Calcutta, entered the Panama Canal, where three American service airplanes hovered overhead to welcome the heir to the English throne. On the first look a squad of American soldiers were drawn up as a guard, and as the Renown came abreast of these they presented arms and a band struck up the British national anthem. A slim, upright figure in the uniform of a naval captain stood on the quarter deck at the salute—the Prince! Presently he went ashore, inspected the guard of honor—shook hands with the officer in charge and invited him to lunch on the Renown.

With his usual interest in constructive enterprise, the Prince inspected the control house of the famous canal, in which the great locks and gates are maneuvered. Dredgers are continually at work keeping the bottom clean, for there are continual landslides from the treacherous banks which at times almost slit up the navigation passages. Such a slip occurred while the massive Renown was passing through. The captain managed to manipulate the difficult passage. The Renown now began to drop lock by lock to the level of the Pacific and at Panama further progress was suspended again while H. R. H. received on board several officials and dignitaries. He also paid a formal visit to the President of Panama.

During the stay of the Prince in Panama the city proclaimed a holiday in honor of the occasion and H. R. H. attended a ball that was given in his honor. During the evening it was noticed that the Prince chose as his partner a very pretty girl whose dancing greatly pleased him. After a time the unresisting guests communicated it to the Prince's staff who were informed that the chosen partner of H. R. H. was but an assistant in a drug store. It was also hinted that ladies more important socially were awaiting the honor of a dance with the Prince. Tactfully the matter was broached to the Prince and the fate of his partner's humble occupation communicated to him. His reply to the veiled reproach was typical:

"An assistant in a drug store."

he said. "Well, it must be a jolly good drug store!"
Afterwards he fulfilled his "duty dances" and then returned once more to the partner of his first choice.

CAPE HAITIEN, Haiti, Sept. 11.—Official information here indicates that the hurricane which swept from its northwestern course and is now moving across Northern Haiti toward the Bay of Gonaves. Communications with points on the north coast of Santo Domingo have been interrupted and the extent of damage is not known.

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, Sept. 11.—Weather reports late this afternoon indicate that the hurricane is sweeping northwestward with undiminished violence in the direction of Florida. At 1:10 p. m. today the storm had reached Samana Bay on the northwest coast of Santo Domingo. It is believed that it will strike Turk Island, 120 miles northeast of Cape Haitien, sometime tonight. Heavy rains have deluged Northern Haiti throughout the day, but the wind has not reached a dangerous velocity.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Sept. 11.—One vessel was on the rocks today, shipping was disrupted, houses were in ruins and other buildings were without roofs, as the result of a tropical hurricane.
It was estimated that the damage in San Juan and vicinity would run as high as $2,000,000. Transportation and communications were disrupted. The loss of life and injuries were undetermined. One investigator, however, reported that many lives had been lost and further deaths would follow from famine and disease unless immediate relief measures were undertaken.

The hurricane reached its greatest intensity at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. For six hours the wind was calculated by the Weather Bureau to have blown at an average of 100 miles an hour, with occasional squalls at 150 miles an hour. The anemometer at the bureau registered 132 miles an hour before being carried away by the force of the wind.

Shipping losses are thought to be heavy. The freighter Helen pulled its anchor and drifted on the rocks at the entrance of the harbor. Two sailing vessels appeared from the shore to be sinking.
The city was in darkness and transportation halted. Communication with other parts of the island was cut off and it was thought that days would be required before it was restored. Weather Bureau officials said, however, that San Juan probably had borne the brunt of the storm and that the south side of the island had not suffered so greatly.

The hurricane ripped the roof off the Union Hotel in the center of the city. Part of the roof of the Union Club was carried away. The Governor's palace was flooded. Windows and doors were blown in. Coconut trees and other palms in the garden were blown down.

Throughout San Juan and its suburbs houses were destroyed and others damaged. Trees broken off or uprooted crashed in the walls of homes and fell across streets, blocking traffic.

HAVANA, Sept. 14.—The tropical storm which struck Porto Rico yesterday changed its course shortly before noon from west-northwest to north-northwest. The Cuban Government observatory reported at 1 p. m. While it was believed that Cuba was out of danger, the storm warnings were kept up.
Dispatches to El Mundo stated that the University of Porto Rico suffered a loss of about $200,000 from the storm. The wind left a wide path of desolation in San Juan and its suburbs, the town of Santurce being virtually leveled. The water front, piers were blown down or washed away by the
